

PAGE
 — Frank's body
 — Tired out!—
 — My brother;
 — Saved again!— 409

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS.

(Vol. II.)

FULL-PAGE ILLUSTRATIONS.

NO.		PAGE
1.	Portrait of the Author Frontispiece.
2.	Ujiji, looking north from the Market-Place, viewed from the roof of our tembé at Ujiji. (From a photograph.) To face	1
3.	The "High Places" of the spirit Mtombwa: View of Mtombwa, Urungu "	36
4.	In Council: the Courtyard of our tembé at Ujiji. (From a photograph.) "	62
5.	A Village in South-East Manyema "	82
6.	The desperate situation of Zaidi, and his rescue by Uledi, the coxswain of the boat "	233
7.	The Fight below the confluence of the Aruwimi and the Livingstone Rivers "	272
8.	The attack of the sixty-three canoes of the piratical Bangala "	300
9.	View of the right branch, first cataract, of the Livingstone Falls, from four miles below Juemba Island "	336
10.	At work passing the lower end of the first cataract of the Livingstone Falls, near Rocky Island "	339
11.	"Lady Alice" over the Falls "	346
12.	Cutting out the new "Livingstone" canoe "	369
13.	Passing Nséto Falls.. .. . "	375
14.	The Circumnavigators of the Victoria Nyanza and Lake Tanganika, and Explorers of the Alexandra Nile and Livingstone (Congo) River "	382
15.	The Massassa Falls, and the entrance into Pocock Basin, or Bolobolo Pool "	397
16.	Group of Mr. Stanley's followers at Kabinda, West Coast of Africa, just after crossing the "Dark Continent." (From a photograph.) "	463
17.	The recuperated and re-clad Expedition as it appeared at Admiralty House, Simon's Town, after our arrival on H.M.S. 'Industry' "	474
18.	Women of the Expedition "	480

SMALLER ILLUSTRATIONS.

19.	A Native of Rua, who was a Visitor at Ujiji	3
20.	Kungwé Peaks. (From a sketch.)	23
21.	The extreme Southern Reach of Lake Tanganika	35
22.	Mtombwa	37
23.	Mount Murumbi	43
24.	Ubujwé and Uguha Head-dress	52

ionist --- Kindly slavery for theft
 — Ali Kiboga's
 ve marches from — My appeal to l man" insults
 !!" — "Enough
 ning civilization
 424

— Cape Town —
 The martyrs to 463