

THE OTTAWA HOTEL,

Great St. James Street, Montreal.

The proprietor of this well known Hotel takes this opportunity of announcing to travellers, that extensive alterations and improvements having recently been made throughout the house, he is now prepared to accommodate, comfortably, as large a number of visitors as any other first class Hotel in the city.

Situated on the most fashionable street in the city, within a minute's walk of the French Parish Church, contiguous to the various Banks, in sight of the beautiful Mountain, a short distance from the Victoria Bridge, the Champ-de-Mars and other prominent places of interest or business, this House is admitted, by all its patrons, to be the most desirable in Montreal.

The bed rooms (125 in number) are well ventilated and furnished, and carefully attended to: the drawing rooms are spacious and comfortable: the bath and wash rooms are convenient: the reading room is well supplied with the leading journals of Canada and the United States. The table is well supplied with the delicacies of the season, while the substantials are prominently set forth: the wines and liquors are of the best brands: the waiters are active, obliging and attentive.

Carriages, with careful and intelligent drivers, may be procured on application at the office.

Omnibuses and porters are in attendance at Railroad depots and Steamboat landings.

Particular attention is directed to the fact that the proprietor of the Ottawa Hotel utterly discards the employment of RUNNERS, being satisfied to allow the success of his House to depend upon its own merits.
