Millions Battle on Austrian and Prussian Frontiers

EX-PREMIER CLEMENCEAU SAYS GERMANS CANNOT INVEST PARIS

ALLIES TAKE UP NEW POSITION FOR MORE FAVORABLE FIGHTING

BULLETIN — Paris, Sept. 1.—11.45 p.m.—The following official statement was issued by the war office tonight:—"On our left wing, as a result of the turning movement of the German army and in order not to accept battle under unfavorable conditions, our troops retired toward the South and Southwest. In the region of Rethel our forces have arrested the enemy momentarily. In the centre and on the right the situation remains unchanged."

RUSSIANS PRESS ON FIGHTING IS FIERCE OVER A WIDE FRONT

Berlin's Claim of Sweeping Victory is Apparently Bagless—Combined Armies of Austria and Prussia Offer Stubborn Resistance, But Russian Host is Gaining Ground.

Special to The Toronto World. WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—The report given out by the German embassy late today of a sweeping German victory and the capture of 70,000 Russians, which the embassy declared was received from official credence here, as it is impossible for the Sayville radio station on Long Island to communicate with Berlin under present conditions.

celebrated in jubilation in Berlin because of the victorious news from the east and west which arrived last night. The Russian defeat at Ortelburg reminds one of Sedan because of the huge number of prisoners taken. The Brazilian military attaché at Berlin writes that the German victories are no surprise for those who witnessed the peace manoeuvres.

In Command of Second Army Corps.

Special to The Toronto World. WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—A despatch received by the embassy told of the crossing of the River Meuse by the invading German legions. Armies under the command of the crown prince of Bavaria and the crown prince of Germany are said to have forced their way across the stream and to be advancing into French territory. The despatch follows: "The Duke of Wurtemberg crossed the River Meuse and is now advancing into French territory at Aixne. The crown prince advanced beyond the Meuse after capturing the entire garrison of Montmedy, which tried a sortie. The fortress also was captured. The crown prince of Bavaria with Gen. Von Herringden, has been in continuous battle in French Lorraine. Celebrated Sedan Day. Today, which is Sedan Day, was

Special Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World. LONDON, Sept. 1.—The Times correspondent at Amiens reports that the Germans came over us like a flood raised by a storm. "During the first month of the war more than two million volunteers came forward. The chief of the German auxiliary department has officially declared that there are many proofs of English and French use of dum-dum bullets. The state of health of the German army is good, say noted hygienists accompanying the troops."

Special Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World. LONDON, Sept. 1.—A despatch from Bucharest, which reached The Central News at London by way of Rome, says the Roumanian general staff considers that the battle on the Austro-Russian frontier would be followed by a general insurrection, and that therefore, whatever may be the sacrifice, the Austrians will not fall back. They are now making a strong effort and are recalling even the troops engaged against France and Servia.

TURKISH ARMY IS MOBILIZED READY TO STRIKE AT ALLIES ITALY AND GREECE PREPARED

"FOR ALL WE HAVE AND ARE" German Officers in Charge of Turkey's Army Which is Prepared to Take a Hand in the General War—Italy and Greece Then Will Fight With the Allies—Naval Engagement Between Japanese and German Fleets is Due—London Censorship on War News More Strict Than Ever—All French Reserves Called Out.

By RUDYARD KIPLING. The following poem was published in London last night by Rudyard Kipling: Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World. (Copyright 1914, by Rudyard Kipling, all rights reserved) For all we have and are Comfort, content, delight, For all our children's fate, The ages slow-bought gain— Stand up and meet the war— They shrivelled in a night, Only ourselves remain. The sun is at the gate. Our world has passed away To face the naked days In wantonness o'erthrown; In silent fortitude, There's nothing left today Through perils and dismay But steel and fire and stone. Renewed and renewed. Though all we knew depart; Though all we made depart, The old commandments stand; The old commandments stand. In courage keep your heart, Impatience deep your heart, In strength lift up your hand. In strength lift up your hand. Once more we hear the word No easy hopes or lies, That sickened earth of old Shall bring us to our goal, No law except the sword But iron sacrifice. Unsheathed and uncontrolled. Of body, will and soul. Once more it knits mankind, There's but one task for all: Once more the nations go For each one life to give. To meet and break and bind Who stands if freedom fall? A crazed and driven foe. Who dies if England live?

TURKEY PREPARES TO FIGHT. ROME, Sept. 1.—Turkey's army is being mobilized, according to a despatch received here from Berlin. The army will consist of a first line of 200,000 men, all Mohammedans. This is in accordance with the advice of Field Marshal Baron Von Dergoltz, the German commander and advisor to Turkey. That Turkey apparently means to go to war and will take the side of Germany, is indicated by the fact that 72 officers, comprising the kaiser's military mission at Constantinople, have been placed in the sultan's army and will serve in case of hostilities.

SOMETHING IMPORTANT HAPPENING. LONDON, Sept. 1.—Something of a very important nature is happening in the war zone. This was indicated this afternoon when the censorship became more severe, and by order of the government, many despatches recounting operations in France and elsewhere were held up. All that the papers are permitted to say is that fighting is progressing near La Fere, about 75 miles from Paris in a northeasterly direction. The morale of the troops is said to be excellent and the losses have been made up everywhere. GERMANS CANNOT INVEST PARIS. "The Germans cannot invest Paris, its size is too vast," says George Clemenceau, former premier of France, in an interview printed by The Daily Mail. "We are fighting," he adds, "for a great cause which is worthy of great sacrifice. We know our frontier would be invaded somewhere. We are still resisting and have many troops in reserve for the big battle which will follow this one."

Colossal Disaster For the Austrians

Tens of Thousands of Wounded Being Removed From Galicia, Where Several Regiments Were Wiped Out—Dual Monarchy Must Win or General Insurrection Will Follow.

Special Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World. ROME, Sept. 1.—A despatch from Bucharest, Roumania, says that fugitives from the Province of Galicia in Austria relate that the Austrian disaster at the hands of the Russians was colossal. Train after train is transporting tens of thousands of wounded. Several regiments were entirely destroyed by the czar's troops, and these are being replaced by heavy drafts from the Landwehr and the Landstrum. It is believed the battle is the most decisive of the whole war as far as Austria-Hungary is concerned. For her own preservation the dual monarchy must win, as an Austrian defeat, it is asserted, certainly will be followed by a general insurrection throughout the country. The government officials of Austria, fully realizing what the situation means, are straining to the utmost, and Austria herself is prepared for any consequence. In order to meet the Russian troops with as much force as possible orders have gone forth for an immense concentration of troops. Those sent to Servia to teach that country a lesson in the art of yielding the ultimatum, are being recalled, as also are those sent into France to aid the Germans in forcing their way through both the lines of the allies to Paris. The Austrian Government now realizes that she needs every available man to keep the czar from wrecking the country.

PARIS BOMB EXPLODED. It now appears that the bomb dropped into Paris yesterday afternoon by a German aeroplane actually exploded. A despatch received here from the French capital says that when the projectile fell in the Porte St. Marion quarter the people in the neighborhood, thinking the noise due to gas explosion, ran out from all sides. In a few moments the fire brigade was on the scene as well as the mayor, the commissary of police and representatives of the French aviation service. It is added that Paris is not taking these bomb attacks very seriously. TO RELIEVE GERMANS. The German Government has appropriated $500,000 for the relief of German subjects in Great Britain. Lieut. Rufus Sogbaum, U.S.N., began the distribution of this sum today.

KAISER TO RUSSIAN FRONTIER? LONDON, Sept. 1, 3.30 a.m.—The correspondent of The Express at The Hague wires his paper that Emperor William has gone to the Russian front. GERMANS READY TO MEET JAPANESE. PEKIN, Sept. 1.—A despatch received here from Tientsin, says the Germans in Taingtau are sending out scouting parties beyond the outposts. It is believed the Germans intend to establish a contact with the investing Japanese. Heavy artillery cannon has been moved with great difficulty owing to the soggy ground due to recent rains. JAPANESE NAVAL ENGAGEMENT. LONDON, Sept. 1.—A telegram from Tokio to The Evening News says: "The time for a naval engagement between Japanese and German ships is approaching, altho the German squadron prefers raiding commerce to fighting. As a consequence, the German ships may escape the Japanese fleet and make their way to East Africa. Japanese men-of-war are searching oriental waters for the Germans and so are British warships."

French Aviator Dropped Messages in Brussels Promising Speedy Relief

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Sept. 1, 6 p.m.—The correspondent in Antwerp of an Amsterdam newspaper says that a French biplane appeared over Brussels Saturday, and, in a hall of German bullets, twice circled the town, dropping hundreds of pamphlets containing the message: "Take courage, deliverance soon." The aviator then made off, after giving the spectators a daring performance of the loop-the-loop. The correspondent adds that all the saloons and cafes in Brussels are compelled to close at 9 o'clock in the evening. The German soldiers there are behaving properly, but their officers are accused of arrogance. The Germans have ordered a Brussels firm to make a German flag which they say they intend to hoist over the Eiffel Tower in Paris.

Wounded in Royal Palace. Gen. Jakowicki, who has succeeded Gen. Count von Arnim as commander at Brussels, is now living in the National Palace. The Grand Duke of Mecklenburg is residing in the city with half his military staff. The headquarters of the Belgian ministers of state, the Royal Palace and the Palace of Justice, are now hospitals filled with German and Belgian wounded. Machine guns are in place at street corners and in the square. Antwerp is reported to be very hopeful, every one trusting in the strength of the forts and the bravery of the garrisons. BOY SCOUTS IN PARIS. Canadian Press Despatch. PARIS, Sept. 1, 5.55 p.m.—English and American boys, whose parents reside in Paris, have been formed into a company of boy scouts. They wear uniforms and will carry messages for the British and American embassies and also for the British and American ambulance organizations. CORRESPONDENTS DETAINED. WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—A number of well-known American newspaper men and magazine writers are being detained at Aix La Chapelle, Germany, in company with French and Belgian correspondents. Advertisers here indicate that the detainer is temporary, and that all will be sent on their way to London. EIFFEL TOWER GUNS READY. PARIS, Sept. 1.—The movable turrets of the Eiffel Tower were turned about four times this morning in every hour. They hold rapid fire guns and will be used on any attacking airship. All outsiders were compelled to remain away from the tower today. In order to save flour will be baked in Paris from now on, in accordance with the orders of the authorities. A decision to call out all the reservists in the country has been reached by the minister of war. WOUNDED PRINCE IS DEAD. AMSTERDAM, Sept. 1.—Prince Von Buelow, German general,

CALL OF KITCHENER HAS FINE RESPONSE

Recruiting of Second Hundred Thousand Men Asked For is Most Gratifying in Its Swiftmess—Carson Plans to Utilize Ulster Volunteers as a Body.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Sept. 1, 8.40 p.m.—The first 100,000 recruits who responded to Lord Kitchener's appeal have gone into training in various parts of the country, and men are now enrolling at a much quicker rate for the second 100,000. In London 10,000 joined the colors in the last few days, while the response in the provinces has been equally gratifying. In Birmingham, where the recruiting is particularly brisk, the lord mayor, Col. Ernest Martineau, has resigned his office and volunteered for foreign service. Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster Unionist leader, has called a meeting of the leaders of the Ulster volunteer force for Thursday, when he will submit a scheme, with the concurrence of the war office for the utilization of this force as one body. EARL'S SON SUCCEUMBS. LONDON, Sept. 1, 8.55 p.m.—Lieut. Archer Windsor-Clive of the Coldstream Guards, second son of the Earl of Plymouth, died today of wounds received at Mons.

NO ORDERS AS YET FOR MOBILIZATION

Word Expected Daily—Legal Squad Goes Thru First Drill. EIGHT ELECTRICIANS Canadian General Electric is Sending Men to Handle Searchlights.

Although no official orders have come from Ottawa providing for the immediate mobilization of the militia, military circles would not be surprised if affairs took such a turn before long. It is recognized that the department is anxious to stimulate recruiting in all centres and to increase the general efficiency of those now enrolled. A general mobilization would accomplish these ends in speedy fashion. The first drill of the "legal" squad took place at the armories yesterday afternoon. This newly-formed organization, known as the Osgoode Hall Rifle Association, is determined to make a good showing and will spend several hours a day at the drill sheds. Searchlight Men. Word has come to the Canadian General Electric Company to send the men, volunteered, to different points. Eight will go to Quebec, Halifax and Esquimaux, with the understanding that they will be employed in handling searchlights. Capt. Hissen Ebbell will be in charge. Recruiting and drilling continues at the armories. A Worthy Exhibition at Dineen's. Visitors to the great annual fair will be charmed with the specially arranged exhibition of furs, millinery, hats and fall overcoats for men, travelling goods, etc., now running at Dineen's, 140 Yonge street.

Sale of a Million Bags To Give Aid to Belgians

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, Sept. 1.—It has been arranged that the million bags containing Canada's gift of flour to the people of the United Kingdom shall be sold as souvenirs and the proceeds given to the Belgian relief fund. It is expected that these bags will be purchased as souvenirs for not less than one dollar each. In this way the Canadian people will help in making a worthy contribution in aid of the people of Belgium, who have offered such splendid and heroic resistance to the overwhelming forces massed against them, and who have endured such great sufferings and hardships in the defence of their country and their liberty.

This old established house has made the most strenuous efforts to meet the prevailing conditions, and have arranged to keep their factory going steadily, and the entire selling staff intact by the praiseworthy increase in turnover. This feature will be amply apparent to visitors to the store, where inspection is cordially invited, whether purchase or not. We are sure your visit is for comparison only.
