There should be a law against any one rising in his seat during an act, and especially in the last act, until the curtain falls. It is the custom of too many people to rise and rush pell mell for the doors before the climax to the last act is reached. There is no suter sign of low breeding and boorishness. If a person doesn't desire to see the end of a play, he hasn't any right to destroy the pleasure of another who does enjoy the performance. No gentleman or lady will deprive others of pleasure, even at a considerable sacrifice.

EVERY MAN TO HIS TRADE.

Distinguished burglar—"What do yer think o' this mean plan o' workin' gentlemen off by 'lectricity? 'Hangin''s good 'nuff for me, every time."
Touts (unlucky horse jockey)—"Well, I dunno. The thing has its good points. If there's anything exasperates a man after his race is run, its the thought that he lost it by a neck."

JUST RECEIVED.

Twelve new Bicycles, ladies' and gents' Brantford and Ontario. The best, at JAMIESON'S.

"A drop of ink, makes millions think." Moral, advertise in the Programme.

MISCALCULATION.

I got a pew in church, and now
I am to grief resigned,
For the one I love to look at best
Sits in the pew behind.

"Is marriage a cure for love?"
"A cure? No; it kills it."

Biggs—I believe Brown is insane.

Diggs—Why?

Biggs—He has brought suit against the New York Central Railroad for killing his mother-in-law.

THE FOOL OF THE SEASON.

To celebrate he points your way
The ancient gun corroded
And as you die you hear him say
He didn't know 'twas loaded.

THE DAUGHTER OF AN EDITOR.

"Why did you reject him?"
"He was not accompanied by stamps."
