

The following Sermon was prepared with a view to support an endeavour, on the part of the Cathedral Authorities, to render the Singing more Congregational in its character than has hitherto been the case. It has been suggested that this most desirable object would be forwarded by the distribution of the Sermon. It is therefore now circulated in print.

P. W. L.