

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

	PAGE
The Marvels of the New World. — Cortez in Mexico. — Montezuma's Wealth. — The Kingdom of Cibola. — Montezuma's Treasure-house. — The Spanish Conqueror's Expedition to Cibola. — Father Niza's Exploration in 1535. — Coronado's Expedition in 1540. — The Jesuits. — Father Kino's Visit to the Country, 1658. — The Cross his only Protection; the Wilderness his only Purveyor. — The Country. — Its Inhabitants. — Their Home. — The Arts. — Their Manufactures. — Their Flocks and Herds. — Gold and Silver Mines. — Mining. — Diamonds. — Rubies. — The Fire-Worshippers. — The Establishment of Missions in 1670. — The Missions destroyed by the Apaches. — Final Abandonment of the Settlements by the Jesuits. . . . .	29

CHAPTER II.

Father Kino. — The Spanish Government. — Its Efforts to develop the Mineral Wealth of Arizona. — Precious Stones. — Silver. — Gold. — Masses of virgin Silver. — Wealth of the Mines incalculable. — The Mines undeveloped. — Reasons. — The geographical Position of Arizona. — Apache Raids. — Homes ravished. — Bowie Knives and Pistols the Administrators of Justice. — The most wonderful Portion of the American Continent. . . . .	40
--	----