

spacious and beautifully kept lawns, the vivid green of which testifies to the mildness of the climate.

GOVERNMENT MUSEUM

Contains a most interesting collection of British Columbia minerals, fossils, and specimens of natural history which should be seen by all. The finest specimens of moose, elk, etc., may be seen. Here is also found a collection of Indian implements, relics, curios and Totem poles scarcely second to that of the Smithsonian Institution.

Corner of the Museum