

ROBBERY
made by the Court of Chancery, of the Province 5th day of April last past, and the report of James Court at London, dated the thirtieth day of Decem-xty-seven, and with the approbation of the said

TEMPER 19th 1868

OF THE CLOCK

ANKIN HOUSE,

Kent, by Richard Monck, auctioneer, duly named,
west half of lot number five, and broken front, in County of Elgin, containing one hundred and twenty deposit in the proportion of $20 for every $100 of his purchase money to the purchase money on the seventeenth day of October next.

John Gibb, of the Township of Aldborough, in the County of Elgin, yeoman, conditions of sale are the standing conditions of sale of the said Court of obtained at the Chambers of the said Master, at London, at the office of C. R.

of Messrs. Scatchard & Meredith, Barristers, London.

thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

J. SHANLY,

Master in Chancery, London.