

SCHOOL COUNSEL BLAMES BISHOP

Shirley Denison, K.C., Tells Board of Education Probe
Superintendent Guilty.

The board of education probe which is being conducted by Justice Lennox resumed its sitting yesterday, when Alfred W. Smith, general agent for the Reliance Home, Imperial and the British and American Fire Insurance Companies was the first witness called.

E. P. Brown, solicitor for the board of education, wanted to know if the board could have got a better rate of insurance if they had dealt direct with the companies, instead of thru the agents. Witness replied that if the policies were spread over a number of years the rate would not have been as good. Witness admitted that he had received a rate of 22 and a half per cent. for his commission. Mr. Smith said he only placed the policy as a citizen, in a desire to see the rate cut down.

The commissioner again reiterated that he would have been glad to give the investigation a wider scope, and to have admitted the evidence of the contractors and others, had circumstances been different, but now he wanted to bring the matter to a close as soon as possible. His lordship said however, that Miss Vokes, and the solicitor for the Fred Armstrong Co. be notified to attend and they would be heard during the course of counsel's argument.

Ancient History
Shirley Denison, K.C., began his argument later and went back over the history of the board to the Levee scandals of 1911. Mr. Denison seriously arraigned Mr. Bishop for not following out the course laid down by Judge Winchester after an investigation into the affairs of the building department of the board.

"In 1914, Mr. Bishop was in absolute control," said Mr. Denison. "He had every chance, every warning; he had his second chance, which very few of us ever get; and, if there is any inefficiency and dishonesty, then it will be impossible, your Lordship, to escape from the conclusion that Mr. Bishop alone is to blame, that Mr. Bishop alone is guilty."

SHARE IN PROPERTY LOST TO COUNTS

Million Dollar Share in F. H.
Walker Estate Declared
Enemy Possession.

In a judgment handed down at Osgoode Hall yesterday Justice Sutherland made an order vesting in the minister of finance as custodian of enemy property the share of the Countess Matuschka in the estate of Franklin Hiram Walker of Detroit. The amount which is involved is something over $1,000,000.

The countess is a daughter of Mr. Walker, who died in Detroit on June 14, 1916, leaving an estate valued at $2,762,897.90, of which $2,969,209.40 were assets within the Province of Ontario. Some years prior to his death his daughter and only child, Ella, married Count Manfred von Matuschka, a citizen of Germany. She was living in Germany with the count at the time of her father's death, making her legally an alien enemy.

The countess came back to the United States, where her mother still resided, and she remained till about February, 1917, when she returned to Germany, fearing that there would be a break between the United States and Germany. As a result an agreement was made by the countess and Mrs. Walker whereby the portion, instead of to the daughter,

MISS M. MACMURCHY ISSUES PAMPHLET

"Women of Today and Tomorrow" is the suggestive title of the latest pamphlet issued by the women's department of the Canadian Reconstruction Association, the writer being Miss Marjory MacMurphy.

Dealing with the women of Canada during the last 40 years, Miss MacMurphy states that definite organization amongst women began with missionary societies, the W.C.T.U., the Y.W.C.A. and later was developed by the Daughters of the Empire, women's institutes and similar bodies. Employment as a general feature in women's life is then taken up, as is also the companion question of wage conditions.

Places where women can wield most influence in the days to come are pointed out, and the suggestion made that organization for the betterment of child life and the establishment of a bureau for the study of children and to teach the art of mother craft would be of immeasurable benefit. An organization of training girls in things the home is also suggested. Generally the pamphlet is among the best of the several excellent articles that have issued from the same source.

SOCIETY

Conducted by Mrs. Edmund Phillips.

"Women of Today and Tomorrow"

The Church of the Messiah yesterday afternoon was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns, pink peonies and Canterbury bells, both blue and pink, the altar with bouquets of white snap dragon and a central one of blue delphinium; the back of the altar and wings were of crimson and gold, for the marriage of Della G. daughter of Mr. Thomas Hook, M.L.A., and Mrs. Hook, to Mr. C. L. Batten, Montreal, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Batten, Toronto. The Rev. J. Selwyn, the rector, met the bride at the door of the church, the quartet, the Messrs. R. A. Staph and Barker, Mrs. Whitney and Miss Plaxton, singing the bride and her maids up the aisle. The bride sang the service and the choir sang the psalm, and at the close of a service a fourfold amen by Mr. R. C. Staph, the organist. During the singing of the register Miss Plaxton sang "Because." The bride, who was brought in and given away by her father, looked beautiful in soft white satin crepe with deep lace falling over the skirt. A short train from the shoulders was lined with shell pink and embroidered with pearls. With this she wore a real lace cap, the tulle veil and orange blossoms falling over the train. She wore the groom's gift, a large single stone diamond ring, and carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses and sprigs tied with pink gauze. Miss Rhea Westall, London, Ont., was maid of honor and wore butternut tulle over gold tissue with hat to match. Miss Kathleen Coutts was in gold tissue draped with mauve tulle with about 20 rooms, which have been similarly fitted up to those in Avenue road home for children orphaned by the war. Ten children in the districts of Halton and Peel counties will be few days. Children up to 16 years of age will be admitted. Within the age will be allowed to leave their little ones in charge of the home while they are taking a short rest.

GENERAL C. H. MITCHELL URGES CO-OPERATION

"Co-operation is the secret of a successful war organization," remarked Brigadier-General C. H. Mitchell, at a Canadian Club luncheon at the King Edward Hotel yesterday. He urged co-operation in education in addition to the need for industrial battle with which Canada was now faced. He preferred the word "co-operation" to "conciliation." They learned what co-operation really meant, added the speaker, when in France in 1915 those great generals, Byng and Harrison, bound and knitted the Canadians together into one splendid fighting machine.

Another conference was held at the city hall yesterday, between Messrs. W. H. Moore and Charles Wilson of the Toronto and York Radial Railway Company, and Mayor Church, in reference to the proposed acquisition of city limits.

MUST, BUT MUST NOT, GO TO JAIL

Extraordinary Predicament of Lunatics Owing to Lack of Accommodation.

Toronto is without a reception hospital, and persons ordered by the magistrate in the police court to be sent to such a place are being held in the Toronto jail. Inspector Gregory of the morality department was instructed to send a prisoner to the asylum yesterday morning. The prisoner was taken to the Queen street institution with his committal papers, but the authorities refused to take the man in. Inspector Gregory said that before a patient is admitted, it is necessary for the police to secure a warrant from the office of the provincial inspectors of prisons and asylums. For some unknown reason, the morality officers have been held up in getting these warrants.

This prisoner is at present in the jail hospital. Dr. Parry, jail physician, says that the hospital has fifteen beds and the section is in readiness to handle a small number of patients and could be made suitable for a reception hospital where prisoners could be held until they could be placed in the asylums.

On account of the building being a jail, however, the police are unable to use any part of the building for a reception hospital. A sub-section in the statutes prohibits the jail authorities from sending an alleged insane person to jail, and states that they must be placed in some comfortable quarters until their sanity is determined. It is expected that the police authorities will take steps to have the prevailing conditions remedied.

"Oh, I Cannot Eat. There is Not a Thing that I Want"

"BUT you will never gain strength if you do not eat."
"No, I suppose not."
"What did the doctor say?"
"He blames it all on my nerves; says my nervous system is exhausted and that I have nervous indigestion."
"Does he think you will soon be better?"
"No; he says I will have to be patient and let my digestive system rest and my nerves gradually regain vigor."
"Well, I know what I would do."
"What is that?"
"I would start in right now with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I have been nursing on so many cases just like yours and have seen so many cured by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food that I am sure it is just what you need to restore your nerves and make you well."

"I have heard lots of my friends tell about using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food when they get run down, but it never occurred to me to try it myself."

"Well, I certainly would try it if I were you. I have never seen such results as a treatment for the nerves from any medicine that the doctors give."

"If you will go around to the drug store and get me a box I will start in right now. Goodness knows, I need something to build up the nervous system so that I can eat and sleep and get some strength."

"All right, I will do that, and I know you will thank me for suggesting it."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.75, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. On every box of the genuine you will find the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author.
