The above resolution was passed night by a joint committee of the board of work s, and finance committee. At the same time the principle of municipal ownership of the plant was raised and strongly contended for by Mayor Stewart and Alderman Peebles. A weak defence was put up by W. C. Flawkins, secretary and general manager of the Cataract Company, who was present, accompanied by Treasurer J. R. Moodie.

In addition to the policy of city ownership Mayor Stewart threw out to Mr. Hawkins a direct challenge ne $300,000 earnings claimed to be used for operating expenses by the Cataract Company, had really gone into expenditure. In reply Mr. Hawkins said the company's books were open to inspection. "You don't keep the books as you used to do," replied the mayor.

In passing the above resolution the committee representing the council made it clear that the extraordinary proposals made by Colonel Gibson were knocked in the head. The eager interest taken in the subject was shown by the group of citizens that blocked the entrance to the position.

Mr. Hawkins again got the floor. "There is no use of spending $50,000. FUNERAL OF DR. LEWIS ORANGEVILLE MOURNS

Many Evidences of Respect to the Memory of the Late M.L.A.

ORANGEVILLE, May 27 .- (Special.) The funeral of the late Frederick W. Lewis, M.L.A., took place this afternoon. The town had been crowded with distinguished visitors to pay their last respects to the late member and business was entirely suspended during the afternoon.

The floral tributes were magnificent and the most beautiful ever seen at any obsequies held in these parts, including a wreath of roses from the Conservative members of the legislature, a pillow from W. H. Hunter, ex-warden; a wreath from the Conservative Association, the town council, the Orange order, the various local financial associations, also beautiful offerings and many personal friends, amongst them: K. F. Dewar, J. N. Fish and E. C. Complin, which bore mute testimony to the es-teem in which the doctor was universally held.

The funeral was held under the ausfeet. The manager said he was not prepared to say as to that. To Aid. Sweeney's hazard that the city might give an annual bonus, the mayor disagree of the Masonic fraternity was also largely represented.
