ALWAYS WISDOM

The Mail spent seven years of its miserable existence in denouncing the separate schools and French-Canadians, when there was no danger from either; now that Quebec is seeking to impose the separate schools upon the whole country, the Mail is aiding and abetting the movement with whatever force it can command.

For seven years also The Mail was in league with the annexationists of the United States. At that time the propaganda was active and dangerous. Yankee gold was distributed in Canada and prominent politicians as well as certain newspapers were under ban. Now, when the movement has failed and has gone into contempt, The Mail is once more loyal, prints the "old flag" as its sign, and denounces in unmeasured terms all annexationists whatever, and those who would Americanize Canada. A few more of these line-bound books by Conan Doyle, Mrs. Clifford, Anthony Hope, etc., regular price 25c a dozen; Friday, 10c a dozen.

NO MONEY FOR BICYCLE TRACK ROUNDS
A nine-foot bicycle track round Island Park, as suggested by the Parks and Gardens Committee, would undoubtedly prove a delightful attraction. It would be patronized daily by large numbers of riders. It would be especially desirable as a safe place for the hundreds of boys and girls who find so much innocent enjoyment in the wheel. But there are other and better uses to which any money that the city proposes to spend in bicycle paths can be put.

According to a census taken between 6 and 7 o'clock the other night 3000 men and women left the business district on bicycles for their homes. The first duty of the City Council, in its regard to the spending of money on bicycle projects, is to place it where it will benefit the thousands of men and women who use the wheel for business purposes, and as an every day mode of transport.

WALKER IN THE RIGHT SPOT
Mr. Nichol will edit the New Independent Paper in London, Ont. London, May 13.—The third paper to be started in London in the course of the week will be edited by Mr. Nichol, who has conducted the editorial department of The Hamilton Herald for the past six or seven years. The new paper will be independent in politics, and will aim at giving the public a fair and accurate view of the chief events of the day. It will be published at 10 o'clock on Thursday.

THE BOWELS

A constipated condition of the bowels causes the accumulation of waste and effete matter, which poisons the system by being taken up by the blood. Hence Bad Blood, Headache, Biliousness, Fevers, Foul Humors, Pimples, Blisters, etc.

BLOOD BITTERS

It attacks all sores, ulcers, abscesses and broken out surfaces of the skin so completely that not even a scar is left. In all skin diseases it should be taken internally and applied externally, according to directions.

Covert Cloth

We spoke about them the other day. A great many have been sold. This notice will tell those who did not secure one that the sizes are again complete.

BICYCLE SUITS

are all "the go" now. Our Bicycle Clothing man says our $3.75 suit is the most wonderful value he has seen. Odd pants galore.

THERE'S PATHOS IN THIS.

Dying, Joseph Tiffany, Misses his child's Marriage, Which Took Place at His Bedside—And So On.

New York, May 13.—Before the sound of the marriage bells for his daughter had died away, and almost before his congratulations of the happy young couple were finished, Joseph J. Tiffany, of No. 108 Bedford-avenue, Brooklyn, died.

Mr. Tiffany's death was not unexpected, and it was because he knew his end was near that the marriage of his daughter, Miss Anna Tiffany, to Mr. Charles Brown of Flushing, was solemnized. The ceremony was performed at his bedside.

It was the original intention that the wedding should not take place until fall, but some time ago Mr. Tiffany was taken ill. Three weeks ago he was able to be out, and attended the funeral of an old friend. His daughter, who was his only child, was with him, and he was able to see her and her husband. The following day he requested that the daughter and her husband be married at his bedside as soon as it could be arranged, saying that he could die happy if he saw them married, and that he had always hoped to be present when his little girl should become a wife.

On Friday last the operation which it was hoped would give him life, and allow him to see his favorite daughter married was performed. When the bride and groom were standing before the altar, the bridegroom knew that his death was a question of only a few days, and Mr. Tiffany, who was lying in bed, was told the truth. The following day he requested that the daughter and her husband be married at his bedside as soon as it could be arranged, saying that he could die happy if he saw them married, and that he had always hoped to be present when his little girl should become a wife.
