miners strike and the threatened walkout of railroad and transport workers throughout the country was centred today on Downing street, the official residence of Premier Lloyd George. Served with virtual ultimatums by the railroad and transport men to begin negotiations with the miners today on pain of facing a tie-up of railroad and possibly other traffic on Sunday night, the premier was expected to make a definite announcement of the stand the Government would take.

Members of the cabinet met last night and held a long session, but the decisions reached were not made public. It was learned, however, that one matter discussed was an appeal to the country for a mandate to settle the miners' strike. Indications of a political, as well as an industrial crisis were found in the out of railroad and transport workers the night the little Boucock girl distroughout the country was centred to-day on Downing street, the official residence of Fremier Lloyd George. strike. Indications of a political, as well as an industrial crisis were found in the situation, it was declared, and it appeared that labor had joined issue with the Government in a struggle which might become historic.

In informal conversations with men prominent in the councils of labor, the premier has given no hint of weakening or receding from his position that or receding from his position that pledges for increased coal production and reference of the miners' demands to an independent tribunal must be agreed to as conditions precedent to

WANT ALL WORKERS WITH-DRAWN.

London, Oct. 22.—The miners' conference of South Wales today asked the National Miners' Federation to call a national conference to consider the withdrawal of all labor from the coal mines. The mines are being kept in order by specially assigned forces and their withdrawal would render the pits useless for a resumption of work.

RUSSIAN WORKERS ARE WATCHING BIG BRITISH WALKOUT

Berlin, Oct. 22.—All the world, especially Russia, is taking a keen interest in the conflict begun by the miners of Great Britain, says a manifesto to the miners written by Mm. Losowosky and Anzelovitch, soviet Russian delegates here, and printed in the Rotefahne, a redical organ.

"We are watching with deep feeling," says the manifesto, "your struggle against the whole force of employers and the British state, a struggle in which everybody who lives by exploiting others opposes the miners and the world of the outpressed and weekled. world of the oppressed and wretched with them. The miners have a fight ahead, and their enemies, armed to the teeth, will do their utmost to break the men's selidarity and penalize them, but they must carry on the fight. The Russian proletariat has experienced how hard it is to fight against the bour-geoisie of the whole world, but that experience has proved the latter's power of resistance has limits, and the pro-letariat can conquer. reached was not disclosed up to 10:30 o'clock.

Two grave questions are exercising the industrial and political world: the first, to what extent the labor leaders are losing control of the workers; second, whether a political crisis and an appeal to the country will develop out of the miners' dispute.

It is stated that James Henry Thomas, general secretary of the railwaymen's union, has exerted the greatest effort to get the action taken by the railwayto get the action taken by the railway-men postponed for a few days, but that his influence was overborne. Mr. Lloyd George was in informal conversation with some of the labor leaders today, but little hope seems to be entertained that the Government will recede from its position, insisting upon an increased output or submis-sion of the dispute to an independent tribunal on a condition for an increase

Could Hardly Do So.

Even had the Government been in-clined to recede from this position, it is felt it could hardly do so now in the face of the railwaymen's threat. Undoubtedly the solidarity of the workers, as shown by the action of the railway and transport workers, comes somewhat as a surprise to the public, be-cause the miners' strike is unpopular with almost the entire community. The seeming inconsistency is explained by some of the labor leaders as due to the universal belief among the workers that the Government, under pressure of big business interests, has decided that a halt must be called to the conthat a halt must be called to the continual increases in wages.

Robert Smillie, the miners' leader, speaking in Glasgow tonight, accused the Government of desiring to remove the hindrances to cheaper and greater production which were found in the present powers of the trade-unions. He promised that if increased wages were granted the miners would concernite with the owners and increase operate with the owners and increase the output by 20,000,000 tons in four or five months.
