REV. DR. ROSE DEFENDS THE HIGHER CRITICS

Livestigation of Bible Would Clear Trades Congress Offended by His Away Many Absurdities-Brother Ministers in Support.

"We need not be afraid of any investigation of the Bible. We should study, work, and trust," said Rev. Dr. Elliott, Wesley College, Winnipeg, at ine closing session of the Theological Conference, in Victoria College yesterday, after the reading by Rev. Dr. Rose, Sherbourne-street Methodist Church, of his paper. "The preacher's study of the Bible in the light of mo dern criticism."

Cooke, Gerrard-street Church, was fearful of Dr. Rose's conclusions. "We read too much on one side or another," he thought, "and not of the Bible itself Rev. Dr. Wallace on the other hand Higher criticism put the student in the position of the first readers of the Bi-
