Procuress Found Guilty.

Charged with procuring thirteen-year-old Virginia Harrison for immoral purposes, Evelyn Fisher was convicted in police court yesterday morning. The little girl told her story interrupted by her sobs. She said that the woman had pretended to be her friend and had taken her from her boarding house in McCaul-street to a house in Peter-street, and thence to the West Adelaide-street, place where the outrage was perpetrated. She had helped her husband to outrage the child and had sold her as well to another man known to the prisoner. Magistrate Denison will impose sentence this morning.

Dr. McDonagh, 140 Carlton-street, left the city Wednesday, to be absent for about two months.
