

JOHN CATTO &amp; SON

NEW DRESS FABRICS

New Dress Fabrics are being daily unpacked and placed in stock.

EVERYTHING IN VOGUE IN THE WORLD'S FASHION CENTRES WILL BE FOUND IN OUR COLLECTION

Ladies' Tailoring and Gownmaking

Many of our readers already know from experience of our remarkable success in the line of Ladies' Order Tailoring, etc., and these we are sure of seeing again this season. To those who have not tried this department, we would say there is a pleasure in store for you in proving for yourself that we fully deserve our reputation for the best of everything—MATERIAL, FIT, FINISH, STYLE, VALUE.

MAIL ORDER FACILITIES UNEXCELLED ANYWHERE.

JOHN CATTO & SON
55 to 61 King Street East,
TORONTO.

INMATE OF ASYLUM KILLS WIFE AND SELF

Continued From Page 1.

locked up and that he had firearms in the house. This was all sworn to in police court and entered in the papers at the time. He was only a week at the hospital when he declared insane by both examining physicians and sent to the asylum. I am surprised that he was allowed liberty. J. C. Sills, 119 D'Arcy street, a son-in-law, said: "Myself told Dr. Perry, the jail surgeon, at the time the old man was committed to the asylum, that he was dangerous and that he had made threats to kill both himself and his wife and that he feared for their lives. Mrs. Merk told one of the asylum doctors, who came to see her, that her husband had made threats to kill her and himself, and that she was greatly in fear of him, and that this was the reason that the family wanted him to be locked up in a proper place.

"In spite of this the old man used to come to my house once or twice a week. He seemed to come and go from the asylum as he pleased. He had his own razor to shave with, and was allowed money. He had two revolvers in the house, and a number of cartridges, in addition to the big revolver and cartridges with which he committed the double crime to-day."

Dr. W. T. O. Farry, jail surgeon, one of the two physicians upon whose examination and subsequent certificate Merk was sent to the asylum, said: "I certainly regarded Merk as a dangerous man when he was sent to the asylum. It was largely upon the history of the case as given by the family that I based my opinion. He was a very cunning man and it was hard to catch him on anything. But the family told me of his threats of suicide, and that he was dangerous, and it was chiefly upon this that my report was based."

Dr. C. K. Clark, superintendent of the Queen-street Asylum, said, in answer to questions: "Of course the man was allowed to visit his home at any time. He was a very gentle old man, and showed very little insanity during all the time he was here. In fact, the question of his discharge, of letting him to-morrow morning, was up to-day."

"It may be true that the asylum authorities were notified of the time of his commitment, but he had made threats, and it may be true that the fact that these threats had been made appears in the commitment papers sent nobody dreamed of his doing anything like this."

"I do not think that the asylum authorities in any way at fault in allowing him his liberty, as was done."

Like a Boarding House.

From enquiries made by Detective Mitchell, it seems that Merk returned to the asylum after he had visited the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Sills, in D'Arcy street, at 8 a.m., for the authorities say he was seen about the institution no later than 10 o'clock. Thus it will be seen that an insane man can walk in and out of an asylum in Toronto, purchase a deadly revolver and straightway walk off and end two lives. The World and the police, too, have more than once urged that some proper check should be imposed by law on the purchase and sale of revolvers.

"EXHIBITION ILLUSTRATED."

The "Exhibition Illustrated" is a publication which cannot fail to appeal to everyone who takes a patriotic interest in the growth of the Canadian National Exhibition. It is of newspaper size, is printed on fine paper and contains 20 pages. While the reading matter gives an excellent review of the outstanding features of the exhibition, the crowning glory is the illustrations, which are remarkably good, showing typical scenes on the grounds, buildings and members of the directorate. The price is five cents.

Harper, Customs Broker, McKinnon Building, 10 Jordan St., Toronto

THE WEATHER

OBSERVATORY, TORONTO, AUG. 29. (3 p.m.)—Heavy showers and thunderstorms are occurring in Saskatchewan and Alberta, while from Port Arthur to the Atlantic the weather has been and is moderately warm.

Minimum and maximum temperatures: Victoria, 50-56; Vancouver, 52-58; Seattle, 44-50; Edmonton, 42-56; Battleford, 44-58; Prince Albert, 48-60; Moose Jaw, 48-52; Qu'Appelle, 48-54; Winnipeg, 50-58; Port Arthur, 42-54; Parry Sound, 50-54; London, 52-58; Toronto, 55-74; Ottawa, 52-68; Montreal, 55-68; Quebec, 48-56; St. John, 51-70; Halifax, 54-74.

—Probabilities—

Lower Lakes and Georgian Bay—Moderate to fresh easterly winds; fair.

Lower St. Lawrence and Gulf—Moderate northerly to easterly winds; fine; not much change in temperature.

Maritime—Moderate northerly to northeasterly winds; fine; not much change in temperature.

Superior—Strong easterly winds; showers and thunderstorms towards evening or at night.

THE BAROMETER.

Time. Ther. Bar. Wind.
8 a.m. 63 29.89 S.E.
10 a.m. 64 29.90 S.E.
12 p.m. 65 29.92 S.E.
2 p.m. 66 29.94 S.E.
4 p.m. 67 29.96 S.E.
6 p.m. 68 29.98 S.E.
Mean of day, 64.5; difference from average, 0; highest, 74; lowest, 55.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS.

Aug. 29 At From
Chicago.....New York.....Havre
Montreal.....Philadelphia.....New York
Columbia.....Glasgow.....New York
Numidia.....Glasgow.....Boston
Wiley.....New York.....New York
K. P. Cecilie.....Cherbourg.....New York
Germania.....St. Michael's.....New York
Luisa.....Glasgow.....Genoa
Vanderland.....New York.....Genoa
Noordam.....New York.....Rotterdam

TO-DAY IN TORONTO.

Aug. 29.
Exhibition—Gates open 8 a.m.; formal opening 2.30 p.m.
Baseball—Toronto v. Providence, Island, 3.45.
Princess—"The Girl in the Taxi."

Royal Alexandra—"Mother," 8.
Shea's New Theatre—Vaudeville, 2 and 8.
Shea's Yonge-street Theatre—Vaudeville, 2 and 8.
Star Theatre—"Beef Trust" Burlesque, 2 and 8.
Gayety Theatre—Majestic Burlesque, 2 and 8.
Hanlan's Point and Scarborough Beach—Various attractions.

BIRTHS.

STEIN—At Chicago, on Monday, Aug. 29, the wife of James E. Stein, superintendent of the Toronto branch of the Thiel Detective Agency, of a son.

DEATHS.

ANDREWS—At Carman, Man., suddenly, on Sunday, Aug. 28, Lillie L. Wiley, wife of James Andrews, and eldest daughter of Gerrard Wiley of 11 Woodlawn-avenue, Toronto.

BELLE—At St. Michael's Hospital, Sunday, Aug. 28, Robert Blackie, aged 56 years.

FUNERAL—At his daughter's residence, 24 Division-street, at 2.30 p.m. Tuesday, the 30th inst., no flowers.

MERRILL—At his late residence, 10 Robert-street, Toronto, on Aug. 29, 1910, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Merritt, suddenly.

FUNERAL private. Kindly omit flowers.

O'BRIEN—On Monday, Aug. 29, 1910, at 135 Wright-avenue, Toronto, Edward Victor, dearly beloved husband of Mary O'Brien.

FUNERAL from above address on Wednesday at 2 p.m. Interment in Prospect Cemetery. Friends please accept this notice.

SMITH—After a brief illness, on Monday, Aug. 29, 1910, at her late residence, 103 Sheridan-avenue, Mabel Smith, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Smith, and aged 18 years.

FUNERAL from the above address on Wednesday at 2 o'clock to Prospect Cemetery. Friends and acquaintances please accept this intimation.

OBJECTED TO THE MUSIC

And Remonstrance Caused Attack That May End His Life.

Giuseppe Rizzio, the Italian laborer, stabbed at his boarding house by his fellow countryman, Rocco di Sabato Sunday night, is still in a critical condition at Grace Hospital, where he was Sunday night that he might possibly recover should blood poisoning not develop from the punctured intestines.

Enquiries by the police yesterday disclosed the cause of the attack on the victim's objection to music played upon a concertina by his assailant.

It is said by those in the room that Rocco was playing when Rizzio, who was a scuffle between the two, Rizzio had climbed the stairs to the bathroom that he discovered that he had been seriously stabbed.

The police believe that Rocco has left the city, and his description will be sent broadcast over Canada and the United States.

NEW AVIATION RECORD.

HAVRE, France, Aug. 29.—Leon Mureaux, famous aviator, to-day broke the world's record at the aviation meet in this city. His monoplane attained a height of 6889 feet.

Handsomeness New Equipment for "International Limited" and "Eastern Flyer."

In order to accommodate the ever-increasing traffic over the Grand Trunk double-track line, it has been found necessary to provide additional seating space on above trains, and commencing Tuesday, Aug. 30, magnificently fitted Grand Trunk dining cars, seating thirty people and up-to-date parlor-library cars will replace parlor-library-cars now operated on following Grand Trunk trains: International Limited, leaving Montreal 9 a.m., arriving Toronto 4.30 p.m. International Limited, leaving Toronto 4.40 p.m., arriving Detroit 10.20 p.m. Eastern Flyer, leaving Detroit 2.45 p.m., arriving Toronto 10.00 p.m. International Limited, leaving Toronto 9.00 a.m., arriving Montreal 6.00 p.m. This move will no doubt be appreciated by the travelling public, who know the excellence of the Grand Trunk dining car service.

Speak Now or Hold Their Peace.

"Some doctors have been talking about the Isolation Hospital," said Mayor Geary yesterday. "Let them come forward now and have their say. They took a lively interest in supporting the claims of Dr. Amyot for the medical health office, and they should be interested in this matter."

Public Amusements

At the Royal Alexandra

"Mother."

For the opening week of the regular season the Royal Alexandra presents a domestic drama, very skillfully constructed and full of emotional interest. This in itself is a testimony to the quality of the play, since it is as true of the dramatic as of other arts that the more confined the sphere the more perfect and individualized must be the theme and its treatment. But a successful play requires more than the peculiar qualities of the vignettist. It needs must be of strong human appeal and touch the deeper chords of natural sympathy. And this, "Mother," presented by William A. Brady, but the work of Jules Eckert Goodman, undoubtedly is. Were the play unrelieved it would be less attractive, but the author has provided a persuasive element of humor that renders it more than usually attractive. This secures a measure of relief from the shadow cast by the foolishness and waywardness of the mother's boys, while also securing the mother's love over the temptations and inexperience of the youth. The play leads up to a series of intensely emotional situations, and at the crucial stages of its development the response of the crowded audience was unmistakably genuine. Mothers seem born to self-sacrifice, but the author has thoughtfully provided a resource for more than tears of regret.

The company is remarkably good and the title role of Mrs. Katherine Wetherill, the "Mother," could not have been more honestly and pathetically played than it was by Miss Emma Dunn. Her acting was of high quality throughout and the entire absence of exaggeration made her interpretation both enjoyable and moving. She was admirably supported by Miss Minette Barrett and Miss Marion Chapman, as her daughters Ardath and Lenore. Miss Jane Corcoran gave a remarkably good rendering of the part of Elizabeth Terhine, and Miss Justine Clifton made the most of the minor role of Agatha.

Messrs. Frederick Perry and Albert Latcha, as the elder brothers, showed a welcome capacity for differentiating special types of character, and James Brophy, as John, Edmund, and John Stokes, as Harry Lake, were excellent, and a word of appreciation is due the irrepressible twins, played by Messrs. Arthur and David Booth. The play was exceedingly well received by a crowded audience, recalls being frequent. "Mother" will be given during the week, with the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees.

At the Grand.

"The Alaskan."

An entertaining, clean, breezy and bright, attractive show in its kind, the musical, "The Alaskan," which was presented for the first time in this city at the Grand last night before a large audience.

You get a laugh from the outset in the comic qualities of the stranded Broadway theatrical manager, who, with the comedian, who is a pretty good one, hit the Long Change trail with the hope of securing an engagement at the Nome Spring house. Richard Carroll, as the "crazy" manager, is the life and the soul of the opera, using legitimate methods in speech and action, which invariably reacted in kind on the audience in front, as there was no straining either in speech or topical song, hence the pleasure to be derived from his impersonation of "Washington Watt," actor, author and manager. His "Hi, Hi, Hi!" specialty with the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

"Toten Pole Pete" was capital played and sung by the manager. His resonant bass voice was heard to advantage in the "Toten Pole" song, and the sentimental ditty, "For I Dream of You," which was sung by the manager and the polka chorus was repeatedly encored.

MADE IN CANADA

GOODYEAR TIRES LEAD BY 154%

On All Automobiles Shown at the Canadian National Exhibition. Goodyear Tires Lead All Other Tire Manufacturers by 41%.

Proof

By careful and actual count, Aug. 29th, it was found that on all pleasure cars of Canada and the United States shown at the Canadian National Exhibition Goodyear Tires have an actual lead of 154%. This fact is positively proven by figures given below:

Name of Car.	No. of Sets.
Cadillac	1
Chalmers-Detroit	1
Everitt	3
E-M-F	2
Ford	1
Flanders	3
McLaughlin-Buick	5
Oakland	2
Overland	4
Peerless	1
Reo	1
Regal	1
Stevens-Duryea	4
White	4

Total Number of Sets... 33
Next Competitor... 18
Next Competitor... 8

GOODYEAR TIRE AND RUBBER CO. OF CANADA, LIMITED

85-87 Queen St. E.
TORONTO

PHONE MAIN 3848.

GOODYEAR Tires

MADE IN CANADA

Goodyear Tires will be Standard Equipment on all High-grade Automobiles for 1911.

Goodyear Tires on Cars shown, 33 Sets

All Other Canadian makes combined - 23 Sets

This wonderful Goodyear lead of 41% over all other Canadian Tire Manufacturers combined may be taken as an accurate index of approbation and favor that has set in so strongly all over Canada toward Goodyear products.

It is a pleasing demonstration of recognized Goodyear prestige and popularity.

Up to the present time we have received tire contracts from Canadian automobile manufacturers for a total of 58% of all cars to be manufactured in Canada for 1911—and there are more to come.

Orders were placed with us long before our factory in Bowmanville was completed—manufacturers knew the Goodyear reputation—and at the present time we are doubling our factory facilities to supply the enormous demand.

POLICE SHOULD REGULATE BAY

Continued From Page 1.

under the given conditions to have tried to avoid the accident."

"I would consider that the ferry should have backed up."

"Had you been in the same situation would you have expected the boat to run you down?"

"No! I would have expected the boat to stop."

Controller F. S. Spence, chairman of the harbor board, read from the witness box, the bylaw passed by the city council governing the rates of speed, etc., of boats of various tonnage in Toronto bay. He also admitted that no further jurisdiction than the regulating of these, and the dredging out of the channels was gone into by the harbor commissioners, altho according to the Dominion Navigation Act, special regulations may be made and enforced by competent local authorities.

This evidence was corroborated by deputy harbor master, John E. Allen, who stated that notices of caution had been issued by the board, referring to the rate of speed and location of the different channels, and had been posted on all the wharves along the bay front from Bathurst to Berkeley-street. He also stated that as far as he knew he believed that the harbor commissioners had the right to frame laws over the conduct of navigation on the bay, but admitted that he did not know why they did not do so.

The Harbors Evidence.

William A. Ross, who is recorded as having saved the life of Miss Mamie Jaffray on the fated night, stated that he was quite certain that there was no reversing of the engines until the impact had taken place, and that right up till this time the boat had been sailing at her accustomed rate of speed across the bay. His evidence, however, was somewhat quashed by Counsel Phalen, who did some clever cross-questioning at this point. Ross stated that the ferry was brought to a stop in 20 feet, which of course would be absolutely impossible under the conditions, he declared.

Robert McCausland, an eye-witness,

At the Star

The Beef Trust.

A great show is given at the Star this week, and judging by the applause yesterday, the Temperance street burlesque house will be crowded to capacity.

The performance commences with a one act burlesque entitled "Levi in Japan." Headed as a side-splitter, the production is all that and more. The widow of a queen of Japan, a buxom matron of some 40 summers and a few added on, by the law of her country has to marry the first stranger arriving. This happens to be Levi, the part being played by Billy Watson. While he was on the stage, he kept the big audience in a roar with his glib and ready repartees, and his duel with the queen brought down the house. Probably the most popular number was the Oriental dance, Miss Lizzette Howe being encouraged four times before the spectators were satisfied.

At the Gayety.

Irwin's Majestics.

A first rate show for exhibition week is Irwin's "Majestics," which opened at the Gayety Theatre yesterday. Contrary to custom, the olio is spread over the whole evening, being sandwiched in between the numerous acts of the piece.

The burlesque section of the performance is devoid of plot, but that matters little when the audience is kept in continuous convulsions by Gus Fay and Joe Hollander, in dialect comedy. Florence Bennett, said to be the daughter of a former officer at Stanley Barracks, is the prima donna, and her bewitching she looks in her many changes of costume, as an "old-fashioned" girl, a "Nell Brinkley" girl, and "I'm Thirsty All the Time," sung by an excellent male octet. Gus Fay's singing of "I Love My Wife, but Oh, Her Family," also met with pronounced success.

Pianos to Rent.

Pianos to rent from $3 a month upwards. Foster-Armstrong Co., Ltd., 4 Queen East, Toronto, manufacturers of Haines Bros. and Marshall & Westell pianos. 245tf

Use Gibbons' Toothache Gum. Price 10c. 246

Robert McCausland, an eye-witness,

BRICKS

Manufacturers of High Grade Red