PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

"THE FALL OF A NATION."

For the whole of this week the tremendous spectacle, "The Fall of a Nation," will be presented at the Strand Theatre. This spectacle, which is by Thomas Dixon, author of "The Birth of a Nation," surpasses anything that has hitherto been seen on the screen. It has a huge colorful spectacle, providing many a thrilling scene of beauty. It has a splendid patriotic theme, which may be commended to all.

"SOMEBODY'S LUGGAGE."

Under the direction of the Messrs. Shubert, James T. Powers will be seen at the Royal Alexandra Theatre, for one week, commencing with special Thanksgiving matinee today, and regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees, in "Somebody's Luggage," a comedy by Mark Swann, based on J. F. Randall's story. Mr. Powers' role is Algonquin Hopper, in love with Caroline Parritt, who has a cousin, Valentin, in the secret service. The company includes Evelyn Varden, Beryl Mercer, Grace Hampton, Lionel Belmore, George Manning and Charles Peyton.

LOU TELLEGEN, NEXT WEEK.

Lou Tellegen, the noted French actor and former leading man of Sarah Bernhardt, will appear at the Alexandra Theatre next week in the romantic comedy, "A King of Nowhere." The seat sale opens Thursday.

HIPPODROME.

In "Gretchen, the Greenhorn," dainty Dorothy Gish will be the headline at the Hippodrome this week. Milton and Dolly Nobles will present an interesting comedy, "The New Thought Club." Tom Brown's Minstrels have a bright, old-time minstrelsy offering. Bessie Le Count has a concert monologue with some pleasing song numbers, while the Sheldons will offer their own gymnastic oddity. Reiser and Hayes, Max Burk and "Keystone" film comedies complete a bright, well-balanced bill.

SHEA'S.

Commencing with Thanksgiving matinee, Shea's management will offer a clever, all-round variety bill, headed by that captivating comedienne, Nan Halperin, who will present her series of famous character songs, delineating the five stages of girlhood. Grace Leigh and Dave Jones will offer their musical satire, "Love's Gamblers." The De Faced Sisters are grand opera singers and talented instrumentalists, while Marie and Billy Hart are versatile entertainers. Hopkins and Axtell will present their travesty, "Travelling," while Valentin and Bell have a unique cycling novelty. The Mitrano Brothers, known as "The Flying Torpedoes," Ed. Weber and Pearl Deal, and feature film comedies complete the bill.

GAJETTY GIRLS AT THE STAR.

Pat White, the whirlwind Irish comedian, and his Gajetty Girls, will be the attraction at the Star Theatre this week. The Gajetty Girls are pronounced by all lovers of burlesque as the swiftest and classiest show of the season in that particular field of entertainment, and wherever this organization has appeared it has created a profound sensation.

YVETTE GUILBERT.

Yvette Guilbert stands out from other artists of her class. However slight her material, she will fashion from it an epic, an idyl, a satire, at will. Mme. Guilbert will be at Massey Hall on Friday evening, Oct. 12.

THE WEATHER

What's the Value of Your Life?

Every man's life has a certain definite commercial value based upon the income he is able to earn.

What is the value of your life? Let us assume it to be $15,000. This amount at 6% will produce a yearly income of $900. So you see $15,000 is not an excessive valuation.

Now, if you owned a building worth $15,000, would you insure it to indemnify yourself against its loss by fire? Of course, you would. And yet the building may never burn.

But have you taken the same precaution to protect your dependents against the loss they would sustain in the cutting off of your life by death? And sooner or later that is sure to happen.

If your life is not insured for the value you place upon it, write to-day for our free booklet "The Creation of an Estate." Tomorrow you may be uninsurable.
