A less definite report is that the seignation of Sir Frederick Borden, Inister of Militia, has been demandd, and that it may be only a shortime before he drops out of the Cabiset. The records of both Ministers it is said, were adversely criticized to caucus this morning.

Several members also criticized the Baposition of federal ministers to rake part in provincial election camalagns and expressed the opinion hat it did the federal party more farm than good.

The report of the Civil Service commission is the sole topic of concretation among politicians and official stoday. President Kingsford, of Ecivil Service and good.

The report of the association, which unthers upwards of two thousand namers, and of Lambert 'Payne, ecretary of the association when sen today made non-committal tatements. They said that the report would be considered at a meeting of the association which will be leid shortly.

None of the deputy ministers would lonsent to be interviewed.

That the Government recognizes he serious nature of the report from a standpoint is shown by the fact had a caucus was fixed for today, it sing known at the time the notices here sent out that the report would be made public on Thursday not out that the pervise was fixed for today, it sing known at the time the notices here sent out that the report would be made public on Thursday and not to serve as in-door relief for needy political 'hacks.'' that he may return to the United States.

Mr. Tower states that he wrote to the fatherland.

He states, however, that it is only the minority who are remaining here in this province, as they have heard of the fertile plains of Alberta and it is over there where they are going in the greater numbers. A considerable number, however, have taken up lands in Beauce, the Lake St. John country: and down in the Baie des Chaleurs region and in other parts of the province which are considered favorable for these returned and returning French-Canadians.

Being asked if all, or a portion, of these have saved anything during their exile in the neighboring republic, Mr. Dupont replied in the affirmative. Most of them, he says, are able to buy farms, although the very fewer number are unable to do so.
