A SAD CASE
 A woman was before Police Magistrate Ritchie this morning for drunkenness. She had not entered a plea of guilty this morning and was remanded to jail. It is understood that arrangements will be made whereby she will be sent back to her home in Sydney, C. B. The woman has three children which are at present in the care of the Children's Aid Society. It is said that the three were well looked after by the woman but that the craze for liquor got the best of her. The police had difficulty in arresting her and it is said that she had attempted several times to do away with herself.

LOCAL NEWS
DIED IN ALASKA
 From far away Alaska comes news of the death of a former resident of West St. John—Jeremiah Quinlan. The news came to Mrs. William E. Kane, Sea Street, today, to the effect that Mr. Quinlan had passed away on April 15. He had made his home in Alaska for a long period. His first wife, Miss Minnie Kane, a very popular young woman of West St. John, died ten years ago. Mr. Quinlan is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Martin Conway and Mrs. Norah Whalen, both of Alaska, and one brother, John, of Stillwater, Minn.

COCHRANE-CLARKE
 The wedding of Miss Marguerite J. Clarke, of the former residence of West St. John, to Thomas C. Cochrane of this city, took place this afternoon in Trinity church, Rev. L. R. Sherman being the officiating clergyman. The bride, who was unattended, and who was given away by her father, was attired in a traveling suit of brown broadcloth with hat of Charmeuse crepe du chene and ostrich ostrays and carried a bridal bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Helen Miller presided at the organ and G. W. Slipp and Benjamin Lawton acted as ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Mahoney will leave on the Boston train for New York, where they will spend their honeymoon. On their return they will reside at 75 Duke street.

MAHONEY-HASTINGS
 A wedding of much interest was solemnized this afternoon in St. Matthew's church when J. Benson Mahoney, a well known druggist of this city, was united in marriage to Miss Mary Helena Hastings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Hastings, Kinghurst, St. John county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Hardwick. They were unattended. The bride was becomingly attired in a burgundy chiffon broadcloth suit with hat to match and carried a bride's bouquet of roses. Miss Helen Miller presided at the organ and G. W. Slipp and Benjamin Lawton acted as ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Mahoney will leave on the Boston train for New York, where they will spend their honeymoon. On their return they will reside at 75 Duke street.

THE POLICE COURT
Twelve Arrests Since Saturday—
Theft of Suitcase Alleged—
Young Man Assaulted His Father
 Twelve arrests were made by the local police since Saturday. Ten were taken into custody on Saturday alone and the two others were placed under arrest yesterday. The two arrested on Sunday were charged with drunkenness. In connection with the latter, the magistrate said that, while in conversation with a prominent citizen yesterday, he was asked if the ten commandments were being adhered to on Sunday in St. John. The preliminary hearing in the case against Pte. Jeremiah Hanley, charged with the theft of a suitcase containing various articles, from Charles McLaughlin on Friday afternoon in the Perris Hotel, was commenced this morning in the police court. Charles McLaughlin said that he was a longshoreman and was a boarder at the Perris Hotel. On Friday night two others were sharing his room. There were two beds in the room and the defendant was there also. This was about 8:30 o'clock Friday afternoon. He went down to supper and when he returned all three men were gone. He looked for the suit case, which also was missing. Witness said that there were collars, ties, socks, shaving outfit, and clothing all in the suit case. Only a few of the things have been recovered. William McKinnon and Harold Miller gave evidence. They said that they had the adjoining room in the hotel. There was a door leading from one room to the other. They were called into the room and, while there, engaged in conversation with the defendant and others who were in the room. Neither were in the room when the defendant and his friends went out. Neither did they see the defendant handling the suit case, although one said that a civilian, who was in the party, had picked up the suit case, alleged to be stolen. The case was here adjourned and the prisoner remanded.

MOVING DAY IS UPON US AGAIN
 May Day with all its moving and the many changes which are therein involved, is but a few hours away and already it is practically an impossibility to secure the necessary teams to work on that day. Many families started to pull up stakes and Saturday saw furniture being hauled in all directions. Moving day so often has been a day of fog and rain that as many families as possibly can, move a few days before the first of the month. This morning broke very unfavorably for those in the moving game, the temperature being at 29 degrees above zero or three degrees below freezing point. This date last year the thermometer registered 35 above. Local transfer offices report that enough orders are booked to keep them on the go steadily for three or four days after the first of the month. There seems to be more moving this year than there has for several years. The cause of so many families moving is due it is said, to the increasing of rents.

SOME PROBLEMS FOR LABOR FEDERATION
 Among the matters which will come up for discussion at the coming convention of the New Brunswick Federation of Labor to be held in Fredericton at the beginning of May will be the Workmen's Compensation Act, the possibility of the establishment of a bureau of labor; the minimum wage bill for women; amendments to the present factory act; the widow's pension act and, finally, government co-operation in solving the problem of the high cost of living.

POLICE AND PROHIBITION
 Two arrests were made this morning by the police. Undoubtedly the two were attempting to celebrate the closing of the saloons in St. John. Chief Simpson said this morning that there would be no change in the workings of the police owing to the prohibition act. The police would continue to do their duty in respect to the law. There would be no special orders issued, said the chief, in respect to the enforcement of the law as its rigid enforcement lies chiefly with the inspectors appointed under the act.

BARGAIN SALES FOR MEN ONLY
 Liquor Merchants Do Rushing Business on Last Day—Many Sold Out—Unsold Stock Worn Some
 It is often said that a woman's paradise is an everlasting bargain sale and an unlimited supply of money, but surprised, indeed, would the author of those words be if he learned that there are bargain sales galore throughout the city today and women are not patronizing them. The sales referred to are being conducted in liquor stores, as this evening is the last day.

From early morning until well into the afternoon men could be seen wending their way along carrying parcels done up in brown paper, the contents of which looked much like bottles. No doubt much of this was for medicinal purposes, while others were laying in a stock of "a wee dash and dorie" for the dry spell that is coming. On the other hand, some did not have faith in storing it away in bottles and apparently decided it was safer to get outside of a large quantity and bid farewell to an old friend in a becoming manner. As a result many were seen about the street in a partially helpless condition.

Many retail stores, having disposed of their stock, turned the key in the lock this morning, while others will keep selling until this evening at eight o'clock, when they will fall in line and put up the shutters. About fifty establishments were affected by the new law. Some of the proprietors have formed plans to open up again by converting their stores into shoe shine parlors and soft drink stands. One or more of the wholesale dealers plan to remove to the province of Quebec, where they will open up for business.

Some of the wholesale dealers are facing a big problem, having a large quantity of liquor on hand, and despite frantic efforts to dispose of it, fear they will still have a considerable amount left when the time expires. There is no provision in the law for the disposition of such goods, and if it is kept or otherwise disposed of they are liable to a fine. They feel that some indemnity should be given them by the government. The reason forwarded by the liquor men is that for years they have paid large sums of money for licenses to conduct their business and that some consideration should be shown them now that they have been deprived of a livelihood. What will become of the liquor in bonded warehouses is another problem, but a simpler one.

LABELLE-EMERY
 A wedding of interest not only in St. John but also in Montreal was solemnized this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock when in the Church of the Assumption, Carriegen's Compensation Act, the possibility of the establishment of a bureau of labor; the minimum wage bill for women; amendments to the present factory act; the widow's pension act and, finally, government co-operation in solving the problem of the high cost of living.

Delegates will be present from many parts of the province and already some of those who will represent various organizations of labor in St. John have been nominated as delegates to the convention. Among whom are Edward McGinnis, James Briton and James McDonald, representatives of the Freight Handlers, West St. John. John Kemp, representing the cigar makers, and J. L. Sargue and Joseph Nixon, representing the carpenters. More delegates to the convention will be named later.

 You'll just have to run over soon and see my new rugs. I'm so tickled!
 I was passing Everett's window and the exquisite designs stopped me. I went straight in and bought three new rugs and told my husband about it afterwards. When he saw them on the floor he, too, was pleased.
 They have just got in a lot of rug "beauties." Do go and see them. You'll thank me for giving you the "tip."
