IN CENTRAL N. B. FREDERICTON, N. B., Feb. 11. Another heavy snow storm with drift-ing snow and high winds has again interfered with transportation in central New Brunswick. About 10 inches of snow fell during the night and a gale caused it to drift badly. The drift-

g continued this morning. Railway lines have been hard hit by the storm but all trains operated out of Fredericton this morning as usual. The only cancellation reported was on the Fredericton and Grand Lake and Central Railways, which cancelled the train running out of Norton to Chip-man because of snow conditions. The train from this city left as usual over that line this morning.

The C. P. R. is operating trains but behind scheduled time. On the Gibson branch the snow is heavier in the vicinity of Fredericton than near Wood-
