DR. O. COMEAU ATTACKED BY HIGHWAYMEN

Held Up and Thrown to the Sidewalk While on Way to Patient in Randolph

To be held up by two highwaymen, thrown forcibly to the sidewalk and searched was the surprising and trying experience of Dr. O. Comeau of Manawagonish road last night as he was hurrying to Randolph in answer to a sick call. A little after 11 o'clock Dr. Comeau received a telephone call asking him to hurry to Randolph as a woman had taken suddenly ill. His automobile was out of commission so he started to walk. While crossing a small bridge about half way to his destination and along one of the most secluded and lonely spots on the road he was accosted by two men who asked him for some money. He refused and started to pass when suddenly he was seized and thrown forcibly to the sidewalk.

In the struggle one of his arms was injured and partly incapacitated and he was unable to cope with his larger and stronger opponents. While one struggled to keep his arms pinned to the sidewalk the other sat on him and started a search through his pockets. His prescription pad and another book were taken but when it was seen that they contained nothing of value they were thrown aside and later recovered by the doctor. His gold chain, attached to his vest was seized and in the struggle broken, while his glasses were smashed into fragments.

At this time an automobile was heard approaching and the men jumped up and rushed into the woods nearby. It was very dark, and also due to the fact that his glasses had been broken, Dr. Comeau was unable to get a good description of the men. He continued to his destination and after attending to his patient was accompanied to his home by a member of the family, but no further attempt was made at molestation. Aside from sustaining an injury to one of his arms and the loss of his glasses Dr. Comeau was none the worse for his thrilling experience.

Our Strawberries For Boston Market

W. C. Robinson Thinks There is a Good Demand for All the Berries We Can Grow.

(Sackville Post) Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Robinson returned recently by motor car from Florida, where they spent the winter. Mr. Robinson while on his way home spent several days in Boston where he interviewed several of the large berry importers. Speaking to the Post of the berry business Mr. Robinson said he had been informed that during the height of the strawberry season something like fifty carloads of this fruit reach the city daily. This will give some idea of the capacity of the Boston market. Mr. Robinson says from what he could learn the Boston dealers are willing to handle berries from this part of the country, providing they are able to secure them in carload lots, properly packed and iced. Coming after the American crop has been finished, berries from Sackville for instance would compete in no way with the American product. Mr. Robinson seems to think if the business is properly looked after, there is almost an unlimited market in Boston for Westmorland County fruit, but he says the business end must be looked after carefully and advises that it be carried on through a properly organized association.

One Little Word But, Oh! What a Big Difference!

'S funny what a big difference the change of one little word will sometimes make. Witness an amusing scene at city hall yesterday in which a mistake in copying just one word turned a creditor into a debtor. Here's how it all happened:

The city desired the use of a piece of wharf property in the North End and made arrangements with the owner to lease it. Things went along all right until yesterday, when the owner entered City Hall and presented a bill, in which the city demanded payment of the very amount which it had agreed to pay for the use of his property. The Commissioner of Harbors was at a loss to understand the action of the Chamberlain's department in this connection, but on investigation in that office he was shown a copy of an order-in-council which read that city would "lease to Mr. So-and-So the Blank Wharf property at an annual rental of $100.00."

"Therefore Mr. So-and-So was billed for that amount," the commissioner was informed. "But I am leasing the property to the city," the owner exclaimed.

The original records were looked up and it was found that the order-in-council decreed that the city would "lease FROM Mr. So-and-So, etc., etc."

So, instead of being called upon to pay the bill, the visitor left with the assurance that he would receive a check for a similar amount from the city treasury.

MICMAC CHIEFTAIN WAS WAR VETERAN

Passed Away at County Hospital Last Evening—Was Wounded and Gassed at Amiens.

A Micmac chieftain, who was also a veteran of the Great War and suffered wounds for the cause of the Empire, passed away last evening at the County Hospital. He was only twenty-nine years of age, the youngest man ever chosen as chief in this province if not in Canada. His name was Tom P. Sipsas, and his home the Indian Reservation near Rexton, Kent county, where there are about 200 families of the tribe. He was elected chief this year. He had really developed tuberculosis before going overseas, but it did not become active until the present year. He was brought to the County Hospital only four days before his death.

Chief Sipsas enlisted in Sussex on July 15, 1915, along with his brother, in the 48th Battalion. He was later transferred to the 2nd Canadian Pioneer, and again to the Canada Engineers. He was wounded with shrapnel in the neck, shoulder and hip, and also gassed, at Amiens on Aug. 8, 1918, and was three months in hospital. He left France on April 6, 1919. His brother also was wounded.

While the youngest man ever elected chief of the Micmacs, Chief Sipsas was also one of the most popular. He was strict, as a result no doubt of his military training, but beloved by his people. He is survived by his wife, mother and step-father. They were all here, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sykes and wife, 88 Chapel street. The family were with him at the end, and other members of the tribe also visited the hospital daily while he was there. His death is deeply mourned by his people. His remains will be interred in Rexton.
