IMPERIAL TODAY Presents WM. S. HART and JANE NOVAK

In a Love Story of the Settler Days

"The 3-Word Brand"

BILL HART IS BELOVED BY EVERYBODY because he is not a rough cowboy but a dignified, fatherly character always ready with a swift horse, an unfailing lasso and a hair-trigger gun to defend women and children in danger of Indians and bad white men. In today's brand new Paramount feature our hero is concerned in an Indian raid—a truly historical incident in which two little boys and a pretty girl are principal figures.

MON. FANNY HURST'S "JUST AROUND THE CORNER" ANOTHER BIG HIT

ROTHESAY WINS
ST. JOHN LOSES

Sussex, March 10.—A good attendance was at the rink to see the two games of hockey booked for this evening between Rothesay and Sussex High School and St. John Indians and Sussex Seniors. The ice was fair—a little soft—but for all that the two games were fast, clean and good hockey and much enjoyed by the spectators. The first game called was between Rothesay and Sussex in their last scheduled game of the inter-scholastic league series, Fredrickson having already won first place in the league tonight's game decided second place in the series which was won by Rothesay by a score of 5-2. The first period ended in a tie, two all, second period Rothesay 1, Sussex 0, and third, Rothesay 2, Sussex 0. The school boys put up a splendid game of hockey. The Rothesay team are strong robust boys, being much heavier than the home boys. The line-up:

Rothesay.	Goal	Sussex.
Young	Bunnell
Carter	Point
Burbridge	Croighton
Brownell	Centre	Friars
Armstrong	Right Wing	Fairweather
Gibson	Left Wing	Lutz
Scott	Spurs	Hunter
Ross	McArthur
	Forbes

The second game was between the St. John Indians and the Sussex Senior teams with the score 12-2 in favor of Sussex. This score, however, does not altogether indicate the merit of play. The St. John boys played a good hard game from start to finish and considering the ice the game was fast. The home team gave their spurs some work to do and allowed them to play a greater part of the game. In the first period Sussex scored 6, St. John 0; second, St. John 2, Sussex 1, and third, Sussex 5, St. John 0. Mooney scored 1 for St. John and Downey 1, Sussex, H. Radcliffe scored 1, Leclair 2, Percy Radcliffe 1, Earle Friars 1 and Walter Friars 1. W. E. McLeod refereed both games.

PROMISE OF BIG ENTRY LIST FOR
BOXING CHAMPS

The boxing championships committee of the St. John Garrison Sports and Entertainment Association met last evening at the armories and discussed plans in connection with the holding of the maritime boxing meet in the armory on April 12 and 13. It was announced that the entry list is swelling and promises to be the biggest in years. Halifax is expected to send a large contingent. Plans were laid last evening for a seating capacity of about 1,800 persons. Two committees were appointed—the ticket and publicity committee, A. W. Watson, convener, Sgt. Landry and Sgt. H. Sweet; and the seating committee, Capt. W. Y. R. Winter, Major C. J. Morgan and Major E. J. Mooney are the committee in charge. Major Morgan presided at last night's meeting. James Power has been retained by the Garrison Association to coach their entries for the city and maritime championships. He is receiving a fine turnout.

POWER BOAT CLUB
NOVELTY DANCE

The grand novelty dance in the K. P. Castle last evening under the auspices of the St. John Power Boat Club was a huge success, being attended by upwards of four hundred people. The ladies present wore middy blouses while the gentlemen sported their yachting costumes, the hall was elaborately decorated for occasion and the orchestra was seated on the platform which was arranged in embleance the deck of a yacht. During the course of the evening's programme of eighteen dance numbers, the tary Club quartette, composed of Messrs. A. C. Smith, Dr. H. L. Spangler, Whit Calms and Thomas Guy, delighted the large number present with several songs. Refreshments were served midnight. The committee in charge of the dance was composed of the following: Commodore Dr. J. H. Barlow, Vice-Commodore Edward Brown, Commodore Ronald A. McAvilly, John Kierwin, and William Edgett. Harry Vanwart was floor manager and the refreshment committee consisted of F. Pidgeon, R. A. Belyea, Mrs. R. A. Belyea, Mrs. Edward Smith and the Misses Adams.

Elsie Ferguson in "Footlights"

THE STORY of a GREAT RUSSIAN ACTRESS who has all Broadway at her feet—the story of her intimate stage life—a life the public never dreamed of, for off stage the great actress, Liza Parslova, was just an ordinary American girl who never saw Russia in her life!
How Liza Parslova came to be a great Russian star, how she fooled the public and made the whole world do her homage—that's the story that reveals the inmost secrets of back-stage, and lets you gaze into the inmost heart of a woman.
And the art of Elsie Ferguson makes the character live, so glowing, so resplendently, that when it's all over you'll hardly believe it's all pretend, and you'll feel as though you'd really known Liza Parslova and suffered with her and joyed with her.
There will be lots of good pictures this season, but only one "Footlights."

A PARAMOUNT PICTURE

MY GOODNESS, Miss Ferguson, why can't you have a "Footlights" every release? It's just fine. There's not a minute from start to finish that we're not with you, tooth and nail. It's a grand film! —Mae Tinee in the Chicago Tribune.

The 25c. Price Scale Will Prevail.

FACTS ABOUT "FOOTLIGHTS"
Miss Ferguson wears thirty different gowns, each worth almost a thousand dollars.
In the course of the play the Star does surprising imitations of several stage celebrities.
A New York "First Night" reproduced in a specially built theatre.
Marc McDermott in the best part he has had in years.
Startling scenes of back-stage life in a cheap vaudeville house, and in New York's best theatre.
The star's greatest opportunity to show her versatility is in this picture. She appears first as a New England girl and then as a small time vaudeville performer, and later as a great Russian actress.
Directed by the man who made Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde.
Full of sets that mark the last word in beauty and luxury.
