BASEBALL

Stuck Out Ruth Twice.
Jacksonville, Fla., March 11.—Miller Huggins, manager of the Yankees, after seeing his colts whip his regulars two days in succession, announced last night that he would back his second team against the second team of any club in either the American or National League for $1,000 a game. His optimism seems to be justified by the fact that the colts beat the regulars yesterday five to nothing, although it must be admitted that George Mogridge and Ernie Shore did the pitching for the colts. The winner struck the great Ruth out twice.

The Young Giants.
San Antonio, Texas, March 11.—The Giants' rookies are getting the habit of victory. One more yesterday they trounced the regulars, 6 to 3. Arthur Zille, a young infielder from Framingham, Mass., who played shortstop for the Cubs, helped a lot towards winning the game. He added a home run to a record of flawless fielding. He looks like a big leaguer.

TRAP SHOOTING.
Will Come to St. John.
Halifax Echo: Good Friday will come too soon to release the fishermen this season, but it will give the "bloodless Nimrods" a chance to show their skill at trap shooting. They will send a team from the Dartmouth Rod and Gun Club to St. John on that date. The invitation has already been extended by the genial president of the New Brunswick organization, G. J. Killam. In addition to being genial, Mr. Killam has an uncanny knack of breaking eighteen yards with rather startling regularity. The team which will compete at St. John is still to be picked; the events being a five-team inter-club match; a two-man challenge shield match; and a two-man match for the St. John cup.

"Besides the business connections with Carpentier, I hope to make matters pleasant for him and see that he gets a real accurate view of America. Carpentier made such a wonderful reputation for himself in the great war that I am satisfied the citizens of this country will be delighted to show their kindly feelings toward the real genuine hero.

KELLOGG MAN IN WRONG WITH MR. O'CONNOR

Supplies Feature of Board of Commerce Inquiry Into Alleged Combine of Wholesale Grocers.

(Canadian Press.)
Hamilton, Ont., March 11.—The feature of the Board of Commerce investigation of the alleged grocers' combine yesterday here was a threat on the part of Chairman O'Connor to have A. H. Jolley of this city, sales manager for the Kellogg Cereal Company, Toronto, arrested on charges of attempted blackmail of the board and for contempt of court. Mr. Jolley attempted to placate the chairman, but succeeded only in bringing upon himself a stinging censure from Mr. O'Connor. Later Mr. Jolley announced that he had resigned his position with the Kellogg Cereal Company and wished to part friends with Mr. O'Connor.

Robert Dowson, president of the York Trading Company, which he said had eighty shareholders, a capitalization of $100,000, with $8,000 paid up and a monthly turnover of about $15,000, said he thought if his organization, which was really a wholesale firm, could buy goods from several concerns which he named, the consumer would benefit. Asked to specify the benefit that might come to the consumer, Mr. Dowson mentioned toasted corn flakes and prunes. Asked by Commissioner Murdoch how $15,000 or $20,000 could be paid by the company on a paid up capital of $8,000, the witness replied: "That is where the ingenuity comes in."

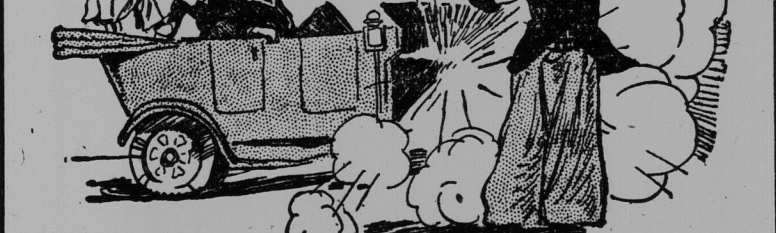

Chairman O'Connor said he did not wish to prevent any evidence being taken, but the board had previously ruled that the York Trading Company was a "sham" and not a real wholesale house.
