RECENT DEATHS

Leat. R. N. Gilmour.
Mrs. Robert N. Gilmour received a cable last evening stating that her husband, Lieutenant Robert Gilmour, died at the Queen Alexandra Hospital, London, February 19. No particulars have yet been received. Lieutenant Gilmour, being unable to attend an appointment after qualifying at the provisional school held here in 1916, resigned his commission, and enlisted in the 29th Light Infantry, August, 1916, left with a special draft of officers for the Imperial Army. He served nine months with the Royal Canadian Regiment in France where he contracted trench fever and was invalided to England. Lieutenant Gilmour is a son of Hugh B. Gilmour of Vancouver and is survived by his father, mother, two brothers, the front, and his wife, who is a daughter of James Lewis of this city, and by a little daughter, Mervin.

John Murdoch.
Joseph A. Murdoch, of this city, received a telegram last night stating that his brother, John Murdoch, had been killed in an automobile accident in Brookline (Mass.) yesterday. John Murdoch is a brother of the late William Murdoch, who died last October. He resided in Brookline (Mass.) some years ago. He was formerly a well known lumber and gas fitter of this city. He was survived by three sons and one daughter.

John Hodges.
John Hodges, one of Fredericton's oldest citizens, passed away this evening at the advanced age of ninety-four years and three months. He broke one of his thigh bones in a severe fall a short time ago and the accident hastened his end. He was one of the oldest Free Masons in Canada and in region an Anglican. St. John was his birthplace, but he removed to Fredericton early in life and then followed the occupation of contractor and builder until some ten years ago, when he retired. He was a member of the Fredericton City Council in 1861. The funeral will take place Friday afternoon. The deceased was unmarried.

Mrs. A. V. Dickson.
Sussex, N. B., Feb. 20—Gladys P., wife of Arthur V. Dickson, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crothers at 8 o'clock this morning. Deceased is survived by her husband, now with a railway construction unit in France, having gone overseas with the 104th battalion and one daughter ten months old.

Mrs. Dickson, who was in England, returned to Canada in December and caught a severe cold while coming on the boat. On arrival here she was confined to her bed where she remained until her death. Much sympathy is extended to the parents and husband in their sad bereavement.

R. M. Hart.
The many friends of Mrs. W. J. Ambrose, of this city, will regret to learn of the death of her father, R. M. Hart, which occurred Tuesday in Hackensack (N. J.). Mrs. Ambrose has been at her parents' home for the last three weeks.

New Home Treatment for Banishing Hairs

(Beauty Topics)

With the aid of a delatone paste, it is an easy matter for any woman to remove every trace of hair or fuzz from face, neck and arms. Enough of the powdered delatone and water is mixed into a thick paste and spread on the hairy surface for about 2 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed. This completely removes the hair, but to avoid disappointment, get the delatone in an original package.
