The proposal to take the Governor Carleton, the new ferry steamer, on an upriver trip to Carleton's lake on Saturday next will probably have to be abandoned, owing to the complaint of the insurance companies that their policies on the steamer would be nullified should she be taken up river. It is said that both the historical trip up river and the proposed excursion for civic officials down the bay on her trial trip will have to be so far as the Governor Carleton is concerned.

MARRIED AT 'PRENTICE BOYS' CELEBRATION

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 14.—(Canadian Press)—While thousands of persons looked on, David Ritchie and Miss Sarah Blevins, young Britishers, were married on a raised platform at the "Prentice Boys' celebration of Landonberry's relief at Carp on Saturday.
The wedding register was signed on a stump nearby. An Ottawa jeweller firm offered a beautiful gold wedding ring as an inducement to any young couple who would get married during the afternoon, and this pair took up the offer.

KING SQUARE BENCHES

Dear Mr. Editor,
Can you tell me what keeps life in King square, facing King street? To their families bring them food, or does the city supply their needs, or have we gone back to Bible times, and are they fed like Elijah, by the ravens, for certainly they never go home.
I have been in your city a month, and passed the square every day, and never once have I seen those seats vacant. "I believe at one time the notes read "for ladies only," but as they were always filled by the married ladies, the occupants are called "the benched ladies."
But really Mr. Editor I do think the police are lacking in their duty, that they do not ask those "benched boys" to move on, as they would do if they were standing instead of sitting. If a lady misses a car, and has to wait ten minutes, she has to stand on a matter how tired she may be, or if you plan to meet a friend at the square, whoever arrives first has the alternative of standing or walking up to the fountain to secure a seat, and run the risk of missing your friend.
Having Mr. Editor this bench to your otherwise beautiful city will be removed, and an opportunity given the gentle sex to sit, I remain very sincerely,
ONE WHO HAS SUFFERED.
