NEW METHODS IN RUSSIA.

New Minister of Interior Tries Moral Suasion Instead of Steel on Riotous Students

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 8.—There was a small student disturbance at the university yesterday, but it was handled in the same rational manner as the one at Kazan cathedral about ten days ago, and as a result the whole affair passed off without serious consequences.

done and the affair ended with a hearty laugh all round. The previous affair referred to above was organized on the occasion of the requiem in the Kazan cathedral on the anniversary of the death of Alexander III, the students making a demonstration in memory of the death in the Peter and Paul fortress of one of their number called Borodk. On this occasion, Putilov, the perfect of police, ordered the police home and simply spoke to the students asking them to desist and disperse, which they did. These two incidents, small in themselves, have created considerable talk in St. Petersburg, owing to the method of dealing with student disturbances which is attributed to the initiative of Prince Sviatopolk Mirsky, minister of the interior. The demonstrations were neither more or less serious than many which in recent years were put down by charging Cossacks with lowered lances. Considerable pleasure is also expressed with the announcement of the resignation of Prince Sviatopolk Mirsky's public reception.

U. S. ELECTION; A HEAVY VOTE.

Ideal Weather All Over the Eastern States.

Lots of Attempts at Illegal Voting in New York—Many Arrests Made.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Almost perfect weather conditions prevailed in Greater New York and early conditions pointed to a heavy vote. From the moment the polls opened at 6 o'clock the booths in many election districts were filled and lines of men stood waiting their turn in depositing a ballot. While perfect order prevailed in most sections of the city, trouble began in some quarters almost at the start and arrests for alleged illegal voting began almost simultaneously with the opening of the polls.

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—Indications of the polling of an unusually large vote throughout Massachusetts appeared in the early part of election morning. The weather is a trifle colder, in Boston and the suburbs, early reports told of a heavy polling. Democratic leaders entered upon today's election conceding the state for President Roosevelt by perhaps 60,000, but claimed the election of Wm. D. Douglas for governor. Predictions were made that the vote in Massachusetts would reach 425,000. Democrats estimated that Douglas would carry the city of Boston by over 20,000, and Judge Parker by about 18,000.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—Election day in Indiana opened with fine weather. Both parties have made elaborate arrangements to get out the full vote. Republican managers are claiming the state by 20,000 with a gain of two congressmen and a safe majority in the legislature.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Optimism over election prospects prevails in the councils of the prohibition party. Oliver W. Stewart, chairman of the Prohibition National committee is confident that the party will receive 200,000 of the votes cast today, which is an advance of 50,000 over the ballot given John G. Woolley in 1900.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 8.—With clear and cool weather in this city there was no apparent rush to get to the polls and little attempt was made to bring out the full vote by either the Republicans or Democrats. There is not the semblance of a contest in Philadelphia, which doubtless is due to the apathy shown by the two big parties.

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 8.—Maine voters were called upon today to ballot only for presidential electors, but the prevalence of desirable weather it was estimated would bring out a very large vote. The state is claimed by Republicans by about 25,000 for Roosevelt and Fairbanks.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 8.—Crisp, clear weather was reported from all parts of Connecticut. In this city scores of voters were on hand when their ballots when the polls opened. In Hartford the crush of voters at the opening of voting places was unexpected. In one ward 100 men were in line before daylight.

OSTEEN, S. D., Nov. 8.—President Roosevelt and his party arrived here at 9 a. m. today on a special train and the president was driven directly from the station to the polling place of the 6th precinct of Oyster Bay, where he cast his ballot. As he drove away from the polling place the crowd which had gathered to see him cheered enthusiastically.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Judge Parker voted here this morning having driven over from Esopus, accompanied by his private secretary, to cast his ballot.

OVER TWO FEET OF SNOW IN QUEBEC

22 inches Fell Last Night—Trains Delayed—Prosperous Northumberland Farmer Found Dead

(Special to Star.) NEWCASTLE, N. B., Nov. 8.—The Maritime Express was delayed one hour and a half this morning on account of the heavy fall of snow in Quebec. It has been snowing steadily in that province for three days. Last night 22 inches fell. There has been excellent sleighing in Campbellton since election day. Declaration day proceedings passed off very quietly here this morning. David Burke, a prosperous young farmer of upper Blackville, was missing from his home on Saturday evening last. Parties were organized, but not until Monday that his body was found near Kirk's siding. There were not any marks on his body and his death is believed to be due to heart failure. He was a very estimable young man.

THIRTEEN YEAR OLD BOY JAILED FOR LEASE MAJESTY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—A Berlin despatch to the Times says: "At Lissa, province of Dalmatia, a thirteen year old Polish boy, Albert Graszak, has been sentenced to three months imprisonment for lease majesty. While at school in conversation with other boys, he condemned the neutrality of Germany in the present war and also made derogatory remarks about the Kaiser."

Yesterday the police found a valise containing a quantity of clothing in a field of Wright street. The owner can recover his property by calling at the North End police station.

JAPANESE WARSHIP SUNK BY SUBMARINE MINES.

Armies in Manchuria Waiting for Someone to Start the Battle--Awful Misery in Doomed Port Arthur.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 8.—It is reported in British naval circles that a Japanese man-of-war has been sunk by a mine of Port Arthur. MUKDEN, via Peking, Nov. 8.—Artillery firing was continuous all along the lines on Monday and intermittent this morning. A battle might commence at any hour. It will be a question of many days if not weeks to decide the position which is the most interesting since the commencement of the war. Each side is waiting for the other to attack.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 8.—The officers and crew of the Russian torpedo boat destroyed on Monday and intermittent this morning. A battle might commence at any hour. It will be a question of many days if not weeks to decide the position which is the most interesting since the commencement of the war. Each side is waiting for the other to attack.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—The Daily Mail's Che Foo correspondent has obtained a letter from a Russian in Port Arthur, dated Oct. 27, in which the writer declares that it would need the pen of a Zola or the brush of Vereschagin to picture the awfulness of the siege.

The "uncanny" part of it all is that men meet death in utter silence. One sees the faces of fighters but hears no sound. One moonlight night at Etse mountain I watched an assault of a ghostly mass of moving figures.

WOMAN KILLED IN DUEL.

Rancher's Wives Shoot at Each Other With Revolvers—One Woman Fatally Wounded.

EVANSTON, Wyo., Nov. 8.—Mrs. Leon Demars, shot in a duel by her husband, died here today. She had been shot in the chest by her husband, who was also wounded. The duel took place near Fort Bridges and upon being ordered away displayed a big revolver. Mrs. Richards had been carrying a weapon in expectation of meeting Mrs. Demars. Mrs. Richards says she was the first to fire, emptying the revolver. Mrs. Demars fell with a bullet in her chest. Mrs. Richards also fired six shots. Both are wives of ranchers. They are 30 years old. Mrs. Richards was arrested.

ST. ANDREW'S MAN MURDERED IN B. C.

A despatch to the Sun last night from Vancouver, B. C., stated that George Gilbey, son of St. Andrew, had been drowned at Vancouver. It was believed that he was murdered. George Gilbey was a son of the late George Gilbey, son of St. Andrew. His parents have been dead some years. A despatch from St. Andrew to the Star today says that deceased left there about thirty years ago and that he has no relatives at St. Andrew.

THE JUDGE AND THE IRISH JUROR.

Judge Adams, the county court judge of Limerick, and a well known story teller in the National Liberal Club, is one of the witnesses of Irishmen, but occasionally in an encounter he comes out second best. Just now he is presiding at the trial of a juror who had excused him from serving on account of deafness. "Were you in court during my charge to the jury in the last case?" asked the judge. "Yes, yer honor," replied the juror. "Did you hear it?" "Yes, yer honor, I heard every word of it, but I couldn't make any sense of it." The reply evoked a roar of laughter, in which Judge Adams heartily joined. But he did not excuse that juror—Westminster Gazette.

BOY BADLY HURT.

Joseph McKenna, a lad about fifteen years old, was thrown from a wagon this morning on Main street, near Douglas avenue, and badly hurt. Shortly before twelve o'clock McKenna was driving down Main street toward the city with a load of fire wood, when his horse became unmanageable. The boy tried in vain to calm the animal, and the wagon, catching in the car track, was thrown over, precipitating the youthful driver to the pavement. The boy was picked up in an unconscious condition and taken to the office of Dr. Roberts. Upon reviving he was taken to the home of Sylvester Babinneau, 19 Merritt street. McKenna's parents reside at Loch Lomond.

FIRE AT ADVOCATE HARBOR.

Post Office and Two Stores Destroyed Last Night—Sir Brunswick Saw the Blaze

Captain Potter of the steamer Brunswick which arrived in port today from Canning, N. S., reports that he saw a big fire at Advocate Harbor when the steamer passed there last night. The Brunswick arrived here very early this morning and Capt. Potter says that when they passed Advocate Harbor the whole sky was illuminated and as far as could be seen from the steamer five or six buildings were in flames. Capt. Potter said he was so far off the harbor that he could not say with any certainty as to the extent of the fire, whether it had just started or was about burned out.

CANADIANS FROM LEBANON.

Six natives of Mount Lebanon, so famed in Biblical history, became Canadian citizens this morning at the court of naturalization. The papers of naturalization were read and filed in the county court this morning by E. R. Chapman. The men are: L. Simon, laborer; Geo. R. Morey, laborer; Salem George, pedlar; Michael Moses, pedlar; John Randon, laborer; and John Joseph, laborer. All swore allegiance to his majesty, King Edward VII, and after this can vote as good British subjects.

3 MONTHS JAIL FOR SMALL BOY

Severe Punishment for Little Willie Foley

Threw Stones at Another Boy—Wife Beater's Case Postponed Till Wife Recovers.

In the police court this morning one man was fined for drunkenness. A Harewood reported for allowing a pile of lumber to remain on Rockland street over night without a light, said he was out of town at the time, but would see that it did not occur again.

The case against William Foley, the fourteen year old boy who was arrested for striking Joseph Gilbert on the head with a stone, was then taken up. Daniel Mullin, K. C., appeared for the prosecution who were examined yesterday he recalled that he might have an opportunity to cross examine them. Gilbert and a man named Webster were called and repeated their evidence of yesterday and were cross-examined at some length.

The defence then called three little boys, Mrs. Foley and the defendant. The evidence of the boys was to the effect that Gilbert threw the first stone and that they told their friends and they made a raid on Gilbert's yard. Mrs. Foley said that Gilbert admitted to her that he had thrown a stone. The defendant said he was going home when a stone was thrown and he thus got mixed up in the affair. All the boys denied the statement made by Gilbert that a rope had been thrown about his neck. In his evidence Gilbert denied that he had thrown a stone.

Mr. Mullin asked for the discharge of the prisoner on the ground that it had not been proven that he threw the stone and that Gilbert's evidence had been discredited. His honor carefully reviewed the case, remarked that for the present he would forget the assaults made on Jews in this section in previous cases, but was satisfied that the witnesses for the prosecution had told a straight story. He fined the boy $40 or three months in jail.

The little fellow, who had showed a heavy interest all through the case, broke down and cried. He went over to where his mother was and embraced her for a few minutes and then returned to his seat on the bench.

It was only for a moment, however, that he remained there, as his grief was too much, and with tears streaming down his face he asked the sergeant to take him away. Sergt. Hipwell patting the lad on the back and took him to a cell in the police station till his commitment could be made out.

The boys who gave evidence in the lad's favor were on an average about twelve years of age.

William Scott, who was remanded on Thursday last till Monday was not taken before the court yesterday as his wife, whom he beat, was unable to be present. It is said that it will be some time before she will be able to appear in court as she was badly used up.

The case against John Tobin, an inmate of a bawdy house, was then taken up. The evidence of several officers was heard, after which the case was adjourned.
