ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., JANUARY 16, 1905.

WHAT CANADIANS SMOKE.

In the last fiscal year the people of Canada took from the producers 13, 160,000 pounds of home manufactured tobacco. This is 1,200,000 pounds above the average of the four previous years.
The people seem to have smoked also 180,000,000 Canadian cigars or nearly one hundred for each adult male in the country. Only about 9,000,000 cigars were imported, or about five per cent. of the whole number sold. Half the smokers in Canada will, perhaps, think that they were supplied out of this five per cent. It will equally surprise the smoker of imported tobacco to know that while the people of Canada smoked 13,160,000 pounds of tobacco manufactured in Canada the quantity imported was only about a quarter of a million pounds, or two per cent. of the whole. To produce the tobacco manufactured in this country 8,110,800 pounds of raw leaf tobacco was imported, paying an excise duty of 25 cents per pound. With this was used 2,985,000 pounds of Canadian tobacco and 1,550,000 pounds of "combination tobacco." Roughly speaking, between one quarter and one third of the tobacco sold in Canada is from Canadian leaf. Of the cigarettes sold in this country only about four per cent. are imported. A few millions of these made in this country are the product of Canadian leaf. It may be said that no Canadian leaf is used by the tobacco manufacturers in St. John. About half of the local leaf is made into tobacco in the Sherbrooke district. In 1904 there was an increase in imported tobacco leaf and a decrease in the import of the home grown product. In addition to other material, 3,334,000 pounds of raw leaf tobacco "and other materials" were sold in Canada for the manufacture of cigars. Most of these were wholly composed of Canadian leaf. A combination of native and foreign leaf was used for 7,221,000 cigars. But apparently ninety per cent. were made of foreign raw material.

THE REAL OPENING.

Discussions and deliberations in parliament begin today. The proceedings of the first week have been given up to ceremonies and spectacles. These may or may not be useful, but they are interesting to a large number of persons, and serve to distinguish the parliament of the Dominion from a mere business gathering.
Today the two houses will take up the consideration of the address. New members will move and second a reply which will be a mere echo of the speech itself. Address and reply were drawn by the same hand, at the same time, and in practically the same terms, with some changes of pronouns.
It is never expected that the mover or seconder will say anything important or even interesting. But when they have finished Mr. Foster, as leader of the opposition for the time, will offer some remarks and the premier will reply. That will be the real beginning of the debate on the address. It may also be the end of it, but at the time when this is written that is not settled.
It is not quite clear who is leading the senate. Sir Mackenzie Bowell leads the opposition in that chamber, and Mr. Scott has been the government leader. Whether he is to retain the position now that Sir Richard Cartwright has become a senator is not yet announced. Mr. Scott is not an effective leader. He had matters in a terrible muddle several times last session. On the other hand Sir Richard is badly crippled with the gout and may not be able to attend the sittings regularly. He cannot move about the chamber with any comfort, rises to his feet slowly and with difficulty, and seems at times to be suffering. Probably he will take life still more easily than he has hitherto. On his own showing the office Sir Richard holds is deserving from his party a still more complete rest, and a continuous pension.

IN THE FAR EAST.

Some of these days there will be word of something more doing in Manchuria. The Japanese army which has been laying siege to Port Arthur is now free. It is not to be supposed that there will be more waiting than there is necessary for the soldiers to recruit, when General Nogi's command will take up active operations, probably on one of the flanks of the Russian army near Mukden. Meanwhile it is not known what is to be done with the Battle fleet. Nor is it announced where Admiral Kammura is. Half of the Japanese navy may be heading toward Madagascar for all the definite information there is to the contrary.

BANDMANN OPERA CO.

HALIFAX, Jan. 15.—The West India line steamer Beta arrived today from passage. She brought the Bandmann Opera Company and twenty-eight employes of the Bermuda dock yard who are en route to England on the Corinthian.

MRS. BISHOP'S SUCCESS

It's easy to make bad bread even though you use the very best flour.
The whole secret of good bread is not the way it's made is most important.
This is why some people do not get such good results as others in their bread baking.
It is to quite an extent a question of baking.
Mrs. F. B. Bishop of Lawrenceville, N. S., made a batch of bread with
"ROYAL HOUSEHOLD" FLOUR.
She made it according to directions and the bread was good.
She made a second, a third and many other batches, and a few days ago she wrote us that she found "ROYAL HOUSEHOLD" FLOUR the best flour she had ever used.
This lady got good results because:
1st. She had the right flour.
2nd. She made her bread according to "ROYAL HOUSEHOLD" directions.

A TIMELY TOAST.

Come, have an hour with me, my dear,
For the year with which we're done;
And another hour, with right good cheer,
For the year we've just begun.
For song and jest,
For work and rest,
For trials and laurels won.

We'll catch the moments of gold, my dear, As they slip through their silver screen;
Then we'll turn the glass without a fear,
And with youthful hope, serene,
For no one's old,
Till zeal's crown cold,
And kindness turned to spleen.

Come, let us be young together, my dear, With the hour that ever is new;
We'll drop the past—and start right he,
With the sands that trickle through.
May days' delights
And slumbrous nights Be on their way to the —Frances Benson in Leslie's Weekly.

BLACK HAWK WAR.

(Des Moines Register and Leader.) William H. Lee, of Shobonier, Ill., claims the distinction of being the sole survivor of the Black Hawk Indian war of 1832. With the difficulty which Iowa is experiencing to find traces of its Mexican war survivors, it is hardly probable that any survivor of the Indian war, fourteen years earlier, will be found in this state. Mr. Lee is now in his ninetieth year.

The story of his life shows many hardships, but the pioneers on the frontier a half or three-quarters of a century ago were indeed to hardships.
Mr. Lee was brought west from New York when he was three years old.
The party made its way on two rafts and a flatboat constructed of logs.
The emigrants took all their live stock with them in their passage down the Allegheny and Ohio rivers landing at Shawneetown, from there going to Salem, and finally going to Vandalia, at that time only a small village. At this place Lee grew to young manhood under the hard lessons of frontier life, assisting his father in his train trading and in sawing lumber.
The story of his participation in the Black Hawk war and subsequent life is told by a correspondent thus: "When the Sec and Fox, or as it was called, the Black Hawk war broke out in 1832 William H. Lee was only sixteen years old, but he possessed courage equal to the hard training he had received in his Illinois pioneer life. After the close of the war he made three successful trips to New Orleans by boat, which in his days was considered a feat of unusual importance, each time taking large loads of grain. In 1850 he succumbed to the California gold fever, making his overland to the gold fields of the country. This trip was followed by two others. On each of the trips large numbers of cattle were driven, which in his days was considered a feat of unusual importance. The third trip was particularly successful. Returning to his farm in Illinois, Mr. Lee has remained there in active charge until within the last few years, when he turned the active management over to other hands. None of his children are living."

The Black Hawk war was closely associated with the early history of Iowa. It was near Fort Madison that Black Hawk's followers rendezvoused to take up the war trail and to cross the Mississippi. It was across the river from the very northeastern point of Iowa that the massacre, hardly to be dignified by the name of battle, of Bad Axe occurred and ended the short-lived war; it was to Iowa that Black Hawk and the survivors returned when the war was ended. The Black Hawk war figured more prominently in Illinois history than in that of Iowa, but it is an important chapter in the annals of this state.

STRATHCONA'S GENEROUS OFFER.

MONTREAL, Jan. 15.—Lord Strathcona has called to the governors of the Royal Victoria Hospital, asking to have the administration building rebuilt at his expense.
The loss is now estimated at upwards of $50,000. It is Lord Strath-cona's wish to have the building rebuilt as a fire-proof structure.
The fire which broke out in the kitchen from an overheated pot of grease, was confined to the two upper floors.
The fire brigade of the hospital succeeded in extinguishing the fire in the kitchen, but the flames afterwards broke out in the walls.

Had she failed in the latter her opinion of the flour might have been very different.
Both were essential to secure desirable results.
That Mrs. Bishop succeeded so well proves that others may do equally well and certainly those who have seen the best bread produced from "ROYAL HOUSEHOLD" must admit that it is the finest bread in the world and worth going to some trouble to procure.
It is at least worth the trouble of

TWO HORSES RUN AWAY.

Sunday morning the horse of Dr.
Addy, Jr., ran away on Charlotte street. When it was caught in an alley off Union street the sleigh was completely smashed to pieces.
Another runaway took place in the afternoon on King Square. The horse belonged to John Ruks. It was caught in an alley off Germain street. Very little damage was done.

The St. Louis newspapers are now devoting some space to saying that their city could build a much bigger fair than the one just closed. If it wanted to. So far no one has made any request for proof of this statement.

LOCAL NEWS.

Harry O. McInerney lectured yesterday afternoon before the Young Men's Society of St. Joseph in St. Malachi's Hall. His subject was "The Power, and in the lecture he traced from early days to the present the growth of power in the hands of the masses. The lecture was an interesting and well received one, with deep attention.

A special meeting of the A. O. H. was held in the Agricultural Hall at Hamilton Village Saturday evening when D.
O'Leary, county president, assisted by the officers of Division No. 1 of North, initiated seven new members into the order.

MORMON REPENTANCE.

(New York Globe).
How much the Smoot hearings and their revelations concerning polygamy and political control have caused the Mormon hierarchy is manifest in the choice of a new senator to succeed Thomas Kearns.

The new senator is George Sutherland, one of whom is in command of the Danites at the Mountain Meadows massacre, who has been kindling with the Danites. All the devices of their enemies do not prevail against them.
For a number of years the public was content in the belief that the Mormon civil war was in process of gradual elimination. The recent revelations have proved this hope fallacious. The church seemed as much in political conspiracy as during the worst days of Bigham Young's rule.

IN THE GUISH OF POVERTY.

German Councilor Visited the United States.
BERLIN, Jan. 14. — Herr Kolb, an imperial councillor and a close personal friend of the kaiser, has been visiting the United States, disguised as a poverty-stricken immigrant in order to study the conditions of life of the American working man.

"Social questions," he says, in describing his experiences, "always attract my attention. I wanted to learn the conditions of the worker in America. There was but one way to do it — to become a working man myself. So I concluded to try it, and went to Chicago."

He saw many phases of life and underwent many strange experiences.
Spending weeks in humble lodgings, houses, living on five-penny meals, and wandering through the streets until footsore and weary looking for work.

Speaking of the servant question and the good treatment and wages housemaids receive, he remarks: "They have good positions, these girls, and if I were not an official of the German government I would want to be a chambermaid in an American family."

Though he offered himself as waiter, dishwasher, driver, gardener, or porter, Herr Kolb was unable to obtain employment until, through the intervention of another homeless wanderer, he was called "Friend Bill." He secured a temporary position as waiter at an athletic association's banquet.
The imperial councillor's next work was as handman at a brewery. After leaving the brewery Herr Kolb had employment at a bicycle factory at a salary of 75s. a week and found the work tiresome, but not hard. At the end of three months, however, he left

TOO MUCH FOOD.

Every time you eat too fast, cram too much food into the stomach, you offend a law of nature and will probably suffer for headaches, nausea, biliousness and all the horrors distresses which are so caused. Now if you assist nature a little in an agreeable manner with such a pleasant and efficacious treatment as Hutch you need not suffer all these troubles. Hutch will give you instant relief from these little complaints, and if you give it a thorough trial you will find that it will cure you permanently of the causes which produce them.
Hutch is a doctor for ten cents; 25c. and 50c. at all drug stores.

SUICIDE SUPERSEDED.

"She died while trying to commit suicide," was the remarkable assertion of a doctor who was giving evidence at the inquest on Miss Elizabeth Marshall, of Stoke Newington, London.

When the doctor was called in he found the girl dead in bed. A curious-looking man was sitting in the hollow of the left arm, the handle being in the hand. The point of the knife was towards the left breast, on which there was a scratch. He believed the woman died from the exertion of getting the knife and the excitement of try-

GIRLS PLAYED HOCKEY.

"The girls played hockey in fine style at the Queen's Rink on Saturday afternoon. The game was only for practice and was between the Mohawks and Neptunes. The Mohawks were captained by Daisy Sears, while Marjorie Sutherland filled the like position for the Neptunes. Ned Mooney acted as instructor and referee. The game ended in victory for the Mohawks by a score of 2 to 1.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS.

(From the Philadelphia Ledger).
"They're comparatively rich, aren't they?"
"Well, I wouldn't say 'comparatively,' but 'relatively.' They have a rich uncle of whom they expect great things."
