Over Forty Members Were Present on Saturday Afternoon

The 62nd Rifle Club held their weekly spoon match on their range on Saturday afternoon. The match was very largely attended, over 40 of the members being present. The wind interfered to some extent with some of the shots. Next Saturday's league match will take place, when a large number are expected to compete.

The following are the scores made by the winners in the different events:

VISITING TEAMS TO PLAY ON SATURDAY

A meeting of the executive of the Inter-Society Baseball League was held on Saturday evening in St. Peter's rooms, with the president, Hon. R. J. Ritchie, in the chair. Representatives were present from all the teams playing in the league.

Arrangements were made to procure cottons to put up on the fences, so that "bushers" from the other clubs will have to pay to see the game.

It is altogether likely that visiting teams will be brought here to play with the league teams. It will be noticed that the schedule for Saturday afternoon games ended last Saturday, and the executive hope to have a visiting team here for next Saturday afternoon and evening. If the games take place the scheduled league games for Saturday evening between St. Peter's and St. Rose will be played on Friday evening.

George McDermott will take up the office of official-umpire, Robert Atchison resigning in order to go to camp. Manager McCarthy of the St. Joseph announced the reorganization of his team, which will contain the following well known players: Long, Burke, Breen and Britt.

St. Peter's will also be greatly strengthened by the addition of Tom Donnelly and Hod. These teams will meet tonight, when a cracker-jack exhibition is expected.

A SCHOOLGIRLS' REVOLT.

Even schoolgirls nowadays are taking an interest in public questions, and unexpected manifestations of this interest crop out in countries where the women have not been looked upon as at all "advanced." The latest instance is an amusing one in Montenegro.

It seems that there is a Catholic college for girls, founded by the Carlita Maria Alexandrovna, supplied with Russian money and Russian teachers. It has six classes, the sixth being the highest. In the room of that class hung a photograph of Prince Nicholas in a gilt frame. The "rebel girls" held a political meeting there. The fathers and brothers of most of these girls had joined the new National Democratic party, and thereby incurred sharp criticism and condemnation from the prince. The girls sat in judgment on him. They said that he called their fathers and brothers "traitors" for no other reason than that they were Democrats, opposed to the autocratic regime. They said further that the prince was opposed to parliamentary government and therefore was unworthy to have his photograph adorn the schoolroom of the modern Montenegrin girls. They took the photograph down and tore it, amid enthusiastic outcries, into a thousand pieces, and danced on them.

The tumult brought to the room the Russian mistress of the school, to whom the girls explained what had taken place and why.

The government ordered Yanko Angel, the chief of the detective force, and as such the most unpopular man in Montenegro, to investigate the matter. When this formidable person arrived at the school, he was surprised to see thirty girls waiting for him in their best dresses, and solemnly presenting to him a bouquet of roses. As a clever detective and a polite man, he was pleased at the attention, thanked the girls, and raised the bouquet to his nose to inhale its perfume. He, however, could not give adequate expression to his admiration, because a violent fit of sneezing attacked him, and shook him badly. As the sneezing would not cease, tears came to the police investigator's eyes, and as the dignified Angel was evidently losing his temper, and also his dignity, the girls charitably advised him to go at once to the hospital and let his nose be cut off, so that it might cease to be thrust into other people's concerns at "cette." The government is angry, but the people, and, it is said, even the prince, are laughing heartily.

CONNORS IS GRANTED HIS SALOON LICENSE

A meeting of the liquor license commissioners was held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. At the meeting the new commissioner, Florence McCarthy, took his seat.

When the meeting came to order a protest signed by about fourteen or fifteen persons in the neighborhood of a license to John J. Connors, who wishes to open a saloon in the neighborhood of a building near the foot of Prince Wm. street, was read.

Recorder Skinner took exception to the petition because it had not been filed within the time required, and that the license would disturb the peace of the locality and that the license was unnecessary. Mr. Skinner declared that such objections might be raised against all licenses.

After Recorder Skinner had finished his remarks on behalf of the petitioners, Mr. Connors said that he had filed within the time required, and that the license would not disturb the peace of the locality and that the license was necessary. Mr. Skinner declared that such objections might be raised against all licenses.

St. John Garrison, 869 Strong, in Command of Col. White, D. O. C., Makes Fine Appearance in Annual Church Parade.—Crowds Line Route of March

The St. John garrison, 869 strong, turned out yesterday afternoon for its annual church parade to Trinity church. Fine weather, not too warm, and a light rain in the morning lay the dust aided in making the parade one of the most successful ever held in the city. Thousands of citizens lined the streets along which the troops marched on their way to and from the church, and thousands congregated on King square to watch them march past Col. G. Rolt White, D. O. C., military district No. 8, after the conclusion of the service in Trinity.

In the absence of the senior chaplain of the church, Rev. Dr. W. O. Raymond, chaplain of the 3rd Regt. C. A. Rev. E. B. Hooper, chaplain of the 2nd Regiment St. John Fusiliers, preached the sermon.

The various units which took part in the church parade assembled at their headquarters at about two o'clock and marched to the Barrack square. St. Stephen's church cadets were headed by a pipe band of eight pipes and three drummers. At 2:45 the markers from the different corps were placed by Lt. Col. Sturdee, brigade major of the 18th brigade, who acted as brigade major yesterday. The instructor of the 62nd Fusiliers, Col. Sgt. Instructor Warren, R. C. R., acted as brigade sergeant major. Lt. FITZPATRICK APPOINTED HAGUE ARBITRATOR

Canada's Chief Justice Highly Honored by British Government

OTTAWA, Ont., June 14.—Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, chief justice of the supreme court of Canada, has been notified of his appointment by the British government to succeed the late Maj. Gen. Sir A. J. Ardagh as one of the four representatives of Great Britain on the permanent board of arbitration at the Hague to settle international disputes. Some time ago in ratifying the appointment of Sir Chas. Fitzpatrick as joint representative of Canada, Newfoundland and Great Britain on the Hague tribunal to adjust matters in dispute with the United States in reference to the Atlantic fisheries, the British government suggested that Sir Charles might also be appointed as a permanent member of the Hague board of Maj. Gen. Ardagh. The suggestion was naturally gratifying to Canada, being a significant recognition of Canada's partnership in the affairs of the Empire as a whole and the appointment has now been made.

In view of the fact that the United States senate adjourned last month without passing the treaty providing for the submission of the fisheries question to the Hague, the matter cannot now be dealt with until next year unless a special session of the United States senate is held this year.
