RIVER NAVIGATION

Practically Over for the Season--Steamers Tied Up.

An Eventful Year and One Full of Mishaps--The Veteran David Weston Will Long Be Missed.

Navigation on the St. John River has practically closed and the river men are busy getting tugboats, steamers and sailing craft into comfortable quarters for the winter.

The majestic is tied up to her wharf at Indiantown, while the Hampstead, which left for St. John yesterday afternoon, will run as long as the river keeps open.

This season has perhaps been more eventful in the history of the St. John river than for many years past.

Early in the summer the str. Queen and the Ada G. were burned at their wharf in Indiantown, and later the Crystal Stream, bearing her load of merry excursionists, was run to near the shore and struck a hidden rock, knocking a hole in her bottom.

Business on the river this season is reported to have been poor. The D. D. Glasier Co. informed the Sun yesterday that the lumber business had been far below the average.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23--A result of the recent tragic death of a man in the woodwork factory of C. Cane blew out, causing the death of two men, and so seriously injured others that they may die later.

WINTER PORT OPENS.

Four Steamers Arrived at St. John on Saturday and Sunday.

Two Commanded by Officers Who Were in the First Ships to Open the Trade in 1896--Over Five Hundred Passengers Landed and Sent Forward--Only Few Sick People Held Back--Now Discharging Cargo.

The winter port business opened Saturday with the arrival of the Donaldson liner Concordia from Glasgow and the C. P. R. steamer Lake Champlain from Liverpool.

The Concordia, which was in the first two months reached port, the Furness liner St. John City, from London direct, and the Manchester liner Manchester Trader, from New York.

The readers of the Sun will be interested in learning that the commanders of the two ships which had the honor this season to open up the service came here in the first two steamships which entered St. John in the fall of 1896, which witnessed St. John's debut in the winter line trade.

Some boys at play saw Cole leap from the track just as the train whirled by. He made no effort to rise, and the boys hurried forward to see if anything could have happened to him.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23--George Cole, a retired business man living at Canarsie, was returning to his home in the Manhattan Beach Railroad tracks near Rockaway avenue, through what is known as "the cut," when he was struck by an approaching locomotive, bound south, started him.

BABE SHOTS BABE.

Tony Cauco, 2 Years Old, Will Probably Die--Carl Marosco, 6 Years Old, Says That It Was an Accident.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 22--While left in charge of his father's candy store today, Carl Marosco, aged six years, in some manner obtained possession of a revolver and shot Tony Cauco in the head, inflicting a wound which it is thought will prove fatal.

The Cauco child, who is only two years of age, was sent in company with an older girl to the candy store by his parents. The details of the shooting are not known, as all of the children are greatly frightened and tell conflicting stories.

The injured child was taken to the New Haven hospital, and it is said today that his chances for recovery are slight.
