

all this,—the Governors cannot but indulge the hope that King's College only requires to be generally known, to attract to its Halls a much larger number of the youth of those Colonies in which similar establishments do not already exist.

By order of the Governors,

JAMES C. COCHRAN, M. A.

Secretary.

HALIFAX, July, 1856.