

Degrees in Law.

BACHELOR OF CIVIL LAW.

Matriculation.

The Candidate for this degree must be a matriculated student of King's College, except in cases hereinafter provided for. If he be an Attorney at Law or a Student at Law who has been matriculated by any law society, or duly entered according to the law or practice of the Courts of any one of the Provinces of Canada, he shall be admitted to matriculation in the University without further examination. These shall be termed undergraduates.

The Candidate will be required to pass three examinations, separated by intervals of not less than a year, to be called the first, second and final examinations in law.

A Barrister of three years standing, who is a graduate in Law of any recognized University, may be admitted to the degree of B. C. L. on passing the examination in Roman Law provided for the second year. (Particulars of the University Matriculation examination will be found in the General Calendar; this examination is held at the College at Windsor, and the following centres:—St. John, N. B., Charlottetown, P. E. I., St. John's, Newfoundland, and Bermuda).

General students (being those who are not undergraduates) may be admitted to attend the Lectures on producing certificates of good moral character. Partial courses may also be taken.

Registering.

All undergraduates must sign the matriculation Register, and General and Partial students the register provided for the purpose.
