ROAD RACING WON THE BIG PURSE

At the Standard. Toronto, Me., August 7.—A Canadian stallion, Baring, now owned in N. H., won first money in the 217 trot at the Pine Tree circus here this afternoon, after a bitter struggle with H. O. McVey, a racy gelding from Syria. The New York horse captured the purse but Baring showed untold speed in the remainder of the race and nosed out the favorite, who was ridden by Lawson, who made a showing and the bookies dropped several thousand on him. Baring beat Roland, Leslie and P. of Banker handsly. No record was broken today but the sport was exciting. There was a attendance of 1,000.
