

EXPECT VERDICT IN THE SCIENCE CASE IN MARCH

All Arguments in the Christian Science Case Have Been Concluded Now.

Boston, Dec. 1.—The future policy of the Christian Science Church lay with the full bench of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts today. Before an audience that included persons from England and other countries, the court heard the last of the arguments between factions within the church as to the construction of deeds of trust on which Mary Baker Eddy founded the organization and its publishing activities. Except for the filing of briefs the case was declared closed. A decision is not expected before the March sitting of the court.

The last argument was by Charles F. Choate, Jr., of this city, who appeared as spokesman for Attorney-General Allen. The attorney-general had turned over to him the completion of his contention that the deeds of trust executed by Mrs. Eddy had created a public charitable trust of which he is the protector under state laws, and to contend that the board of directors were the governing body of the church and had power to remove members of the board of trustees which controls the Christian Science Publishing Society.

HUN MILITARISTS WANT BOLSHEVISM

See in it an Opportunity to Restore Old Army Regime.

Berlin, Dec. 1.—Everything is in a ferment that comes to the mind of the German extremist Nationalists, even the victory of the German communists at Halle over the right wing of the independent socialist party. The praise which the German Minister of Foreign Affairs bestowed on the Russian Bolsheviks in the Reichstag is proof of this. The reinforcement of the German Communist party indeed is most opportune for the men of the extreme right like Heinrich Himmler, Dietrich, and Lettau von Vorbeck, whose aim is a Russo-German military alliance against England and France. In the opinion of these men, as von Vorbeck not long openly declared, German Soviets would never become anything but imitators of their Russian brethren and thus a Red wave sweeping over Germany would really be a blessing in disguise. The masses would begin by being strongly anti-militaristic, as was Bolshevism in Russia at the start, only within a very short time to create the most rigid militaristic system. Germany has ever known, and under the rule of good Prussian officers, these red German troops would become ideal soldiers in the next war against the entente. It is interesting to remember that the Polish delegate to the League of Nations, Simon Askenazy, has already expressed the conviction that the extreme Right in Germany is involving a Red wave to immerse Germany and the rest of Europe to sweep before it the last remnants of the peace treaty of Versailles.

NIGHT CLUB INSTEAD OF CABARET FAVORED BY LONDON POPULACE

Songs Provided During Meals by Noted Artists—No Use for Jazz.

By HUGH DRYDEN.
(Copyright, 1920, By Cross-Atlantic.)
London, Dec. 1.—London has not yet got the cabaret habit—though it has expensive and exclusive night clubs, one of which has just started a modified cabaret. The nearest approach to the New York cabaret here and in the big provincial cities is the growing custom of having leading concert performers sing at restaurants and hotels during meal times, in addition to the usual orchestra. The introduction of songs into the hotel musical program was first made at the Midland Hotel, Manchester, when it was opened, nearly 20 years ago. At that time nearly all singers, big and little, considered it rather infra dig to sing in an hotel, though the Midland Hotel paid a fee of $50 and gave accommodation.

A man who engages singers for the biggest restaurants company in Britain, said: "We are ever on the lookout for singers of talent, for whom there is a tremendous demand. We pay salaries from $100 upwards and the fee is regulated by the quality and reputation of the singer. To those who are at the top of their profession we pay as much as $400 a week."

"The provincial cities will not have any artists but the best. At Liverpool the audiences are most critical, and all over the North of England the people are musical, and frequently discuss music while at dinner. The people in the North did not take to jazz, which they regarded as musical."

"The song during a meal is now a regular feature, the service is temporarily stopped, and the dinner remains perfectly still while the song is being sung. It is also being extended to smaller hotels and less pretentious restaurants, where the fees paid are not very big."

WELSH MINERS ARE COMING TO CANADA

First Contingent Are Now on Way—Five Hundred to Come.

(Copyright, 1920, By Cross-Atlantic.)
London, Dec. 1.—Fifty Welsh miners sailed for Canada over the week-end, destined chiefly for British Columbia and Ontario mines. They are all former service men. Their wives and families expect to sail later. It is anticipated that by the end of the year, 500 English and Welsh miners will go to Canada. This emigration campaign follows direct negotiations between the Dominion Labor Ministry and the Ministry of Labor in London. Throughout the labor exchanges in the coal districts 500 volunteers were sought at attractive rates of pay offered by Nova Scotia operators. Near the required number enrolled at the average of $10 per day. The miners prefer steady work in Canada against the threatened coal strikes in Britain. The miners will be leaving weekly until the end of the year.

FRENCH WINE GROWERS LOOK FOR HARD WINTER

Many of Them Selling Their Vineyards and Giving up Business.

By HENRY WILLIAM FRANCIS.
(Copyright, 1920, By Cross-Atlantic.)
Paris, Nov. 30.—The year 1920 promises to be a record wine-producing year in France. The vines of Burgundy are reported to be in the same pink of condition they were in 1919, when the vintage was such as to have made it popular with gourmets everywhere. The vines of Bordeaux, Vaucluse, Anjou, and the rest of the vine-growing regions are equally well this year. The trouble is that there are few buyers for them. With the United States, formerly one of France's biggest wine customers, pledged to "dryness" or such "wetness" as home-brewing affords, with Germany, formerly another "good spender" out of the market, and with England restricting the importation of wine by the heaviest taxation, France's wine growers are looking forward to a hard winter.

Some of the growers are selling out rather than cope with the situation. The latest to follow this course is the Duc de Tremblay, owner of the famous Chateau Margaux with its dependencies and famous vineyards which for more than a century have produced one of the most celebrated brands of Bordeaux wine. The Duke has sold his entire interest in Chateau Margaux for 4,800,000 francs, or about $750,000 to a French syndicate. The price is considered extremely small and reflecting the pessimistic outlook of the French wine trade.

TROUBLED WITH ITCHY ECZEMA

In Rash on Face and Limbs. Cuticura Heals.

"I had been troubled with eczema on my face which took the form of a rash. Lairs & boils out on my limbs and they itched very much, causing me to scratch them until they were bleeding. The rash would often keep me awake at night. I tried some remedies, which failed, and then thought I would try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. It was not long till the rash began to disappear, and I used three cakes of soap and four bottles of Ointment, which healed me." (Signed) W. M. Hyman, Paris, Oct. 12, 1919.
