New Plan Is Tried All Over New

Alpheus Geer Utilizes as an Agent for and Crime Prevention

By RAYMOND G. GARR (Copyright, 1921, by Public Service Bureau)
Since Homer's time when Buryalus, pugilism has had a place among the sports, the code of rules drawn up by Chambers half a century ago which the Marquis of Queensberry named, having been the discipline of violence. But trained for Alpheus Geer, a milk manufacturer, to utilize an agent for reform and a preventive.

Mr. Geer calls his venture shall stillman movement, the Marshall Stillman being the patronymics of his grandmothers are on the name of 17 West Thirty-eighth street this morning I found him in a pique of a pickpocket and a sterner, and proud of it. He is aged, and a trifle deaf, but glances disclosed the rugged, trained athlete under his blue coat and striped trousers. He of the best amateur boxers country.

"Modern pugilism is violence by conventions that are useless," he said when asked the unique movement of which he is the founder. "It is the one sport which a normal healthy boy comes rightly by his name 'art.' I have simply used the word for boxing as the way to hold of them before they start downward path. The great men are criminals now are young, they are between sixteen and twenty years, the dangerous element there is little common sense method of their living. Our is to interest the youngsters living and making them a constructive of a destructive force man society."

Boxing Clubs for All Parts of

Mr. Geer went on to explain under his plan athletic clubs featured boxing would be set all over the country. Already shall Stillman Athletic Club West 13th street, is overworked have been running for two years up there and the idea has been out and proved a winner.

"That is why we who are propose to extend, and are to raise $1,000,000 for that purpose to see establish city a score or more of such community centers for the are generally found on the New York we hope to see boxing clubs into Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago."

By renting the 12th story rooms in the afternoon as quarters for professional boxers, most enough revenue is made make the club self-supporting. Leonard trains the boys, and know the big fellows are there helps to glorify the club in the "We give our boys free use in boxing," continued Mr. Geer Sunday evenings there are men which men prominent in the club life appear. There is no lack, some good boxing bout addresses are upon constructive subjects. Our members that the ideals of America be presented to a class of citizenship, if over the world, a message of better citizenship sense is it a religious movement purpose being to take the nation column and put the plus column."

Prominent Persons Inter

In this effort to properly guided energy, Mr. Geer has around him some of the prominent of New York. They include R. Couder, Lawrence Justice Vernon M. Davis, McGuire, Elmer Root, Jr., Herbert Shipman, Charles F. Roe, Edwin Gott, Frederic Kernochan, H. R. Stuyvesant Wainwright, R. Davis, Dr. Graeme M. Ham, the Rev. Dr. W. L. Sullivan, ber of women also have themselves in the club, am Miss Anne Morgan, Mrs. Her Russell and Miss Elmer M. man.

"Many boys with nerve who better cause, have chosen the gangsters," said Mr. Geer. men go wrong frequently desire for notoriety. All of us ly happy only when expressives in the way which we represent the talents of which we are possessed. In seeking those of self-expression a strong perfectly legitimate ambition upon devious ways which we crime. The gunman and the frequent offspring of the lad of the slums.

"In searching around for escape from the dullness and of everyday life he often get conception of what is braver the shooting of a Herman under the electric lights of Broadway from the corner East Side. He takes pride in ory of a passing nod from 'L' or 'Gyp the Hood'; for dull gall the trigger that sounds throughout the entire country echoes lasted full many a man are after those boys before to prey upon society and we them in even after they have as criminals. They have chance with us, and boxing net that draws them to us.
