Fifty Cents for a Wife. [From the Boston Traveller, March 4.] A funny looking specimen of humanity has been perambulating several of our streets for a few days past and going into our warehouses and informing the clerks that he was very much in want of a wife, that he had been trying for a long time and had not succeeded. He seemed terribly in earnest and was willing to pay Gold, Silver, Oreide and Brass Plater any one who would recommend him. When asked what price he was willing to give he said fifty cents. He had on a somewhat ancient looking hat, with the crown more or less jammed. Carriage Trimmings plated to order. a huge pair of rubber boots, with his pants tucked inside of them, and his hair was long and matted and had the appearance of not having been combed for the last six months. His clothes were more or less tattered, and he really looked as if he needed just what he was in search of. He said he resided near Tufts College, and "Alexis" and "Fashion." could give a wife a real good home on a farm. Take him all in all, he was the funniest looking specimen that has moved around these parts.
