

Montserrat, principle of reciprocity with Canada accepted, 689, 692-94; instructions preceding conference, 695-96; becomes party to West Indies trade agreement, 698, 705

Moore, John Bassett, boundary waters, 365-67, 439

Moresby Island, 384

Morison, Donald, 461, 461n

Morley, Viscount, Secretary of State for India, 1905-10, Canadian immigration policy, 595, 595n

Morocco, commercial treaty, 261, 264

Morrill, US coastguard cutter, passage through Welland Canal, 839-40

Morris, Sir Daniel, 679, 693

Morris, Sir Edward Patrick, Prime Minister of Newfoundland, 1909-18, 111-12, 468, 468n, 470, 813, 817

Mount Joly, Labrador coast, 500, 500n

Munez, Point, 404

munitions, 31, 68, 152, 210-11; for Canadian forces, 51, 53, 57, 73, 75; for British and Allied governments, 62, 75, 77, 106, 116, 119, 138, 140, 188, 210-11—see also Imperial Munitions Board; Shell Committee

Munitions, Minister of (UK), 113, 140 (see also Lloyd George, D., June 1915-July 1916; Churchill, W. S., July 1917-Dec. 1918); Ministry of, 77, 93, 111, 121, 146, 210—no specific reference to E. S. Montagu as Minister of Munitions, July 1916-July 1917

Murphy, Charles, Secretary of State, 1908-11; presiding over Department of External Affairs, June 1, 1909-Oct. 6, 1911, 555, 561, 586

Murray, G. H., Premier of Nova Scotia, 584-85

Muscat, 261

Muzon, Cape, 404, 444

N

Nagasaki, 646

Nagel, Charles, Secretary of Commerce and Labor (US), at pelagic sealing conference, 551, 558, 559, 562, 567, 573

Nakamura, T., 616, 618, 738, 741, 745, 747-48—see also Japan, Consul General

Namakan, Lake, 364

Nashville, USS, arming of: US request for permission, 818-19, 821; belated negative reply from Canada after passage through canals and arming of vessel, 820-22; UK asks Canada to reconsider its protest against arming of vessel, 823; Canada maintains objection but withholds protest, 824; US Secretary of State accepts Canadian position, 825

Nassau, 687

Natal, 664, 666, 777

National Service, Minister of (UK), compulsory labour, 190

national service regulations for best use of Canada's human resources, 196-97

National Transcontinental Railway, 93

Na-t'ung, 601

natural resources of Empire, 259n, 283n, 286-87, 296, 310, 314-15—see also raw materials

naturalization laws of Dominions, 248, 305, 315

naval militia (US), history of in states bordering the Great Lakes, 829; Naval Appropriation Act, 834-35 naval organization for Canada, development after 1902 Colonial conference, 236; discussed at 1909 Imperial Defence Conference, 224, 230-37, 239-45; suitable types of vessel, 233, 236-37, 239, 242-44, 272, 274; personnel and training, 236-37, 244-45, 275, 278, 280; immediate realization unlikely, 275; Prime Minister's memorandum for Governor General, 1913, 279-81; Canadian ships placed at disposal of Royal Navy, 1914, 40, 40n, 48—see also Admiralty (UK): defence policy; Imperial (Colonial) Conferences, 1907, 1909; shipbuilding in Canada, naval vessels naval patrols—see Atlantic seaboard; Bering Sea, seal fishery patrol; Fisheries Protection Service; Newfoundland; pelagic sealing, bilateral treaty (Article V) and 4-power convention (proposition 7); shipping, protection for

Naval Service, Department of the, 138, 168, 269, 496, 498

—Minister of, Canadian vessels for service in Royal Navy, 40; construction of naval vessels in Canada, 121, 155; London discussions, 1909, 224-25, 230, 235;