Personal Mention. Prof. and Mrs. Keirstead are home in Wolfville, and will reside on College avenue extension.

Mr. O. A. Rogers, representative A. M. Bell, of Halifax, hardware, was in town this week, in the interests of his firm.

Mr. George Johnson, of Ottawa, Dominion statistician, has been visiting his brother, Mr. J. A. Johnson, of Grand Pré, for a week, and left for Ottawa yesterday.

Mr. C. C. Barnes, the well-known commercial missionary of Geo. S. DeForest & Sons, St. John, is in town. Mr. Barnes is driving his own team and pushing "Union Brand."

Mr. L. J. Webster the popular accountant of the Peoples' Bank Agency of this town, left on Wednesday morning for a vacation of two weeks, at his home in Shediac, N. B. He will make part of the trip on his "Victor."

Messrs T. Henry Pease and W. C. Balcom were in town on Wednesday in the interest of the Universal Coal Dipping Car Co., an adv., of which appears in another column. We understand they are doing a good business selling shares in the leading towns of Nova Scotia and disposed of a number here.

FOR SALE.—A superior, double-seated Wagon. Apply to D. B. Shaw, Wolfville.

Avonport. The Avonport—Horton Landing Railway bridge is being thoroughly repaired. This structure was built seventeen years ago by the Union Bridge Co., of Athens Pa. The company have sent Mr. Hancock with a gang of men to do the work. The job is expected to occupy two or three months.

A contingent from the geographical department, Ottawa, are to begin work in the vicinity soon. They have been at work for some months in East Hants gathering materials for a geological map of the province. Messrs Fletcher and McLeod have been here making preliminary inspection of the territory.

At Mrs. Loomer's auction things sold at fair prices. The house and lot were disposed of at private sale to Miss Martha Allen of Long Island. It is evident that real estate is not on the decline, for this place which for years remained vacant had a half dozen would-be purchasers, and went on a good advance on the price of two years ago. Mrs. Loomer and her mother are going to Boston shortly.

Mr. E. H. Borden is visiting his brother G. N. Borden. It is pleasing to see our neighbor among us again, looking hale and healthy.

We hear that F. G. Borden has sold his farm to a gentleman from Falmouth. J. B. Newcombe has bought a building lot close to the railway station from Daniel Huntly. A store is likely to be erected upon this lot.

The salt grass is being cut now. The crop is heavy. Previous to this year during past quarter, and an increase in membership of jurisdiction of between four and five hundred. A rousing public meeting was held on Wednesday evening, a programme consisting of music by choir, recitations, readings, earnest forcible addresses, taken part in by grand officers, the Rev. Mr. Burgess, Darpee Witter, B. Harvey and others. An interesting meeting of the head of hope was held on Thursday afternoon. A severe storm prevented a meeting at Westport Thursday evening. The delegates took their departure on Friday morning with mingled feelings of regret, encouragement and hope. They carried away feelings of esteem, recollections of hospitality, anticipations of meetings yet to be, a confirmation of the value of our principles by the evidence afforded by this community where the church and the division join hands and influence the hearts and minds of the people, and their prosperity, intelligence, happy homes abound, and thus is a stranger.
