

Prince, Bishop of St. Hyacinthe. B. at Princeville, P.Q., 1844. Ed. at Nicolet College, and at McGill College, Montreal, where he obtained degree of B.C.L., 1867. Unmarried. Called to the Bar, L.C., 1868. First returned to Parl. for present seat, at g.e., 1872; re-elected at last g.e. Is editor of Le Journal de Arthabaska. A Liberal and a Protectionist. In favor of International Arbitration.—Princeville, P.Q.

ROBILLARD, ULYSSE JANVIER, J. P. (Beauharnois.)

S. of M. Joseph Robillard, of Ste. Genevieve, Jacques Cartier, P.Q. B. there, 1826. Ed. there. M., June, 1871, Delle Marie Virginie Lanaud. A produce and grain merchant. Was Mayor of town of Beauharnois, 1864-65-66. First returned to Parl., for present seat, at g.e., 1872; re-elected at last g.e. A Conservative, Independent, and Programmist, but promises fair play to the new Ministry, to enable them to develop their policy, and if it is favorable to the interests of the country, will give them his loyal support. In favor of the construction of the Pacific Railway at an early day. —Beauharnois, P.Q.

ROBINSON, Hon. JOHN BEVERLEY. (Toronto West.) 2ND MEM.

Second s. of the late Sir John Beverley Robinson, Bart., C.B., for many years Chief Justice of Upper Canada, and representative of York and Toronto in Parl. Descended from a Yorkshire family, among the most prominent of whom may be mentioned Christopher Robinson, Secretary of the Colony of Virginia, the first of the family to come to Am., 1860, and elder brother of Dr. John Robinson, Bishop of Bristol and of London. Among the direct descendants of Christopher Robinson, were John Robinson, President of the Council of Virginia, and for nearly thirty years Speaker of the House of Burgesses there, in old colonial times; Col. Beverley Robinson, a well-known loyalist officer in the Am. Revolutionary war, who raised a regt. in defence of the Crown, and whose name is intimately associated with that of Andre, in the treason of Benedict Arnold; Gen. Sir Frederick Robinson, G.C.B., Commander-in-Chief and Provisional Governor of U.C., and afterwards Governor of Tobago; Christopher Robinson who during the Revolutionary war served as an officer of the "Queen's Rangers," under the command of General Simcoe, first Gov of U.C. After the close of the war he was appointed Inspector of the