

The Dalhousie Gazette

Volume 101

Halifax, N.S.

Number 5

The Chicago horror show also

Sportspage 11
Editorialpage 4

How George Wallace was grossed outpage 2

METRO WEATHER
Sunny today and Friday.
Light winds. High today 75.
Low tonight 61. Details see page 1.

Toronto Star
ESTABLISHED 1827
July paid circulation 367,387 copies per day

three star
★★★
edition

Viet protesters beaten, gassed by Chicago police

Special to The Star
CHICAGO — Club-wielding police and National Guard troops with tear gas canisters fought a bloody battle with 4,000 anti-Viet Nam war demonstrators last night in front of the downtown headquarters of the U.S. Democratic national convention.

Humphrey landslide splits party

By ROBERT REGULY
Star Staff Writer
CHICAGO—The Democratic party, shattered by disagreement over the Viet Nam war, selected Hubert Humphrey as its presidential candidate early today, but the nomination was overshadowed by brutal police suppression of anti-war demonstrators in the Chicago streets.

Handcuffed by Russians, Dubcek flew to hideout

PRAGUE (Reuters) — Alexander Dubcek, Czechoslovak Communist party leader, was hauled out of his headquarters the day of the Soviet invasion of his country, handcuffed and flown in a Russian military aircraft to a secret destination in Slovakia.

Battles shown

Television networks carried the convention kept cutting away in three million viewers the battles going on in the streets just five miles away as demonstrators were beaten, injured and arrested off the job by police.

Board of Control votes 4-1 for city-state government

By GEORGE GANSTER
Star Staff Writer
A proposal that could transform Toronto into a city-state government by a parliamentary legislature was approved last night by the Board of Control.

Pigs, the crowd shouted 'He fell -- the cops kicked him'

By JIMMY BRESLIN
Special to The Star
CHICAGO—He was running with his body low to the ground and he had no control of himself as he kept stumbling into the cops in the street and the cops chopped down on his head with their clubs.

