JOSHUA

PG Patton: A Salute to a Rebel (1970)
 Panoramic portrait of the flamboyant General Patton, a magnificent anachronism deeply pious and extremely profane who would have been "more at home in the age of heroes than of machines" has been praised and reviled by hawk and dove alike. A biographical-epic that highlights his defeat of Rommel, command of the Third Army racing across France, capture of Sicily, liberation of 12,000 towns, his antics that bothered and fascinated the German high command and his mental anguish upon being nationally disgraced after slapping a battle-fatigued GI.
 Directed by Franklin Schaffner.
 George C. Scott, Karl Malden, Edward Binns, Karl Vogler.
 20th Century-Fox (C) CS 169 min. AYC. A2.
