

York University recognizes tobacco smoke as a major health and safety hazard. The University acknowledges its obligation to take all legal and practical measures to protect the health and safety of those individuals using its premises and facilities.

All buildings, parts of buildings, enclosed spaces and vehicles under the control of York University, including space rented or leased by the University, are non-smoking. Smoking is prohibited in all such space except for specifically designated smoking areas.

Every individual using University premises is responsible for ensuring compliance with the policy and is expected to show courtesy toward and consideration for others.

The smoking policy of the University is under review for implementation no later than September 1, 1990. This review will further restrict the number and location of designated smoking areas. In the interim, smoking must be confined to those areas currently designated and noted as Smoking Permitted.

Current practices do not meet University Standards as laid out in the policy, especially in Curtis Lecture Halls, Central Square and in some private offices. As members of the University community, we are all urged to observe the provisions of the policy now in place.
