

of our personal relations to the C. P. R. Coy. * You see it is insinuated that we have been robbing
the Coy. Such scabbles
do not know, and do not want to know,
that we have had nothing
beg and every other ^{shambles} & that so far from getting anything from the Coy
we have helped the Coy to the full extent of our ability - ^{patience} and without advantage of any kind. It is not a little ²⁶²³ disaffectioning that we should be malignant & branded

as scoundrels by the very people whose interests we have been supporting at enormous loss to ourselves and widely
but so it is, & we must put up with
it. I have already ^{informed}
Mr. Cohen & Pope. That I am not at all
doubtful of our ability
