If, on being satisfied on those points, the Department should decide to purchase the property, the necessary transfer by deed must be made by an approved Notary at Quebec.

It is a subject of regret that so heavy an expense was incurred in the survey of this property before satisfactory evidence as to the title had been obtained by you and submitted for consideration to the Department.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant.

Wm. Mackenzie

Deputy of the Secty. Genl.
of Indian Affairs.
