Sir,

In the Edmonton "Bulletin" of the 13th Ultimo among the local items it is stated that "the families of the prisoners now at Edmonton are not suffering from hunger, although rations are not given them, as fish were plentiful; that food is now supplied to those Indians of the Victoria District who are working for themselves and to those who are unable to work for themselves, but the whole number are not rationed as they were last Winter; ammunition is given to
