I was the Orderly Room Sgt on the 12 Feb 43.

Spr McCloy was in possession of a ^{48 hr} pass which had been extended by 24 hrs until 1200 hrs 12 Feb 43.

Spr McCloy did not turn in his pass and on investigation I found he was still absent ^{at 1201 hrs} on the 7th 14th and 21st days he was reported absent on the Casualty Return.

On the afternoon of the 29 March 43 I received a message from 2 Div H.Q. that Spr McCloy had surrendered himself to the Cdn Provost Corps in London. At approx 1610 hrs. I took Spr McCloy into custody from the Cdn Provost Corps escort at Petworth Station.

The accused declines to cross-examine.
