

14. A voter who has been personated can render a ballot. Voter Personated.
Section 101.

15. A person claiming to be entitled to vote, but whose name is not on the Voters' List, may tender a ballot. Tendering a Ballot. Section 102.

16. A voter who has spoiled his ballot paper can have another Spoiling Ballot. on delivering up the one spoiled. Section 103.

17. Immediately after the close of the poll the Deputy Returning Officer, in presence of the Poll Clerk and the two Agents for each candidate, shall open the ballot box and proceed to count the votes, and in doing so shall open them with their printed faces upwards, so that that they can be seen by the Agents present. Counting the Ballots. Section 105.

18. Those ballots are void which have not been supplied by the Void Ballots. Deputy Returning Officer, or on which votes are given to more candidates than are to be elected, or on which anything in addition to the printed number, or name or initials of the Deputy Returning Officer on the back is written or marked by which the voter can be identified. But no word or mark written or made, or omitted to be written or Exception. made by the Deputy Returning Officer on a ballot paper shall avoid the same. Sub-section 2, section 105.

18. The Deputy Returning officer shall take a note of any Objection to any Ballot. objection made to a ballot, and shall number and initial it on the back, but the decision of the Deputy Returning Officer shall be final as to counting such ballot. Sub-section 3 and 4, section 105.

The Deputy Returning Officer shall endorse rejected on ballots he Rejected Ballots. rejects, and if rejected shall endorse it rejection objected to.

19. The Deputy Returning Officer shall then make up a state-Ballot Statement. ment of the votes given for each candidate, in words as well as in figures, under the proper heads, which shall be signed by the Deputy Returning Officer, the Poll Clerk, and such of the agents as may desire to sign such statement. Sub-section 687, section 105.

20. The Deputy Returning Officer shall certify on the Voters' Certifying Voters' List. List, under his own signature in full words, the total number of persons who have voted at the polling place at which he has been appointed to preside. Section 107.

21. At the close of the poll the Deputy Returning Officer, on Certificate to Agents. being required so to do, shall deliver to each of the agents present a certificate of the number of votes given to each candidate, and of the number of rejected ballot papers. Section 108.

The agent must be sure to ask for the above certificate, and preserve it carefully.

22. The Deputy Returning Officer shall, at the completion of Making up and Sealing Paper. the counting of the votes, make up into packages the ballots and documents used in the election in the manner directed in section 109, and shall seal them.
