

5. To what should confirmation be considered as the step?

To the Lord's table.

6. Who ought to be confirmed?

Those who, having been baptized in their infancy, are now come to years of discretion.

7. What is the best qualification for those who desire to be confirmed?

A sincere intention to yield themselves to, and serve the Lord.

8. What was promised for you, first, in your baptism?

That I should renounce the devil and all his works, the pomps and vanity of this wicked world, and all the sinful lusts of the flesh.

9. Who is the devil?

Satan, the chief of the wicked fallen angels.

10. What are the works of the devil?

Blasphemy, pride, witchcraft; envy, hatred, malice; hypocrisy, lying, slandering; despair, presumption, unbelief; delighting in wickedness, and tempting others to sin.

11. What is meant by the world?

The things of the world, and the men of the world.