

et it, and to correspond ts, and to obtain for the ose blessings which God Him." From that time bour, Canon and Profes-with the Central Coun-eared a circular, in con-established in his Diocese. print his Pastoral in the avorably and as prompt-et reached us, but we is circular has not been tive part in the work, their subjects, but they owed it to take its own take part in it. Many those venerable Prelate enly in the work: but several parts of his tions were received by ce where the work was en or eight dioceses in re the centre. There called on to take the e of false reports and is associates, and not We could relate most compel us merely to number. The most nteed to the efforts of not apprehensive but ilustrious a confessor he work of the Holy

PROGRESS AND RESULTS

OF THE

HOLY CHILDHOOD.

In order to convey an exact idea of this progress, we must describe the effects produced by the Holy Childhood, first on these pagans, and then on their children. Its effects on pagans. These men, who are strangers to every generous sentiment, look upon the establishments of the Holy Childhood with the most extraordinary astonishment. Every hospital, every school, every foundation, emanating from motives of sincere and