THE QUEEN OF WORDS

It Is on the Lip of Both Saint and Profligate.

POWER OF THE WORD "COME."

The Most Persuasive Word in the English Language-It Is the Mightiest of All Solicitants for Good or Evil-The Only True Way for All to "Come" Is by Believing and Repenting.

Entered according to Act of the Parliament of Canada, in the year One Thousand Nine Hun-dred and One, by William Baily, of Toronto, at the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Washington, Oct. 20 .- In this discourse Dr. Talmage calls all people to gladness and opens all the doors of expectancy; texts, Genesis vi, 18, Revelation xxii., 17, Imperial, tender and all persua-sive is the word "come." Six hundred and seventy-eight times it is found in the Scriptures. It stands at the front gate of the Bible, as in my first text, inviting antediluvians into Noah's ark, and it stands at the other gate of the Bible, as in second text, inviting the post diluvians of all later ages into the ark of a Saviour's mercy. "Come" is only a word of four letters, but it is the queen of words, and nearly the entire nation of English vocab ulary bows to its scepter. It is an ocean into which empties ten thousand rivers of meaning. Other words drive, but this beckons. All moods of feeling hath that word "come." Sometimes it weeps and sometimes sometimes it tempts, and sometimes it destroys. It sounds from the raglios of sin, from the gates of heaven and the gates of hell. It is confluent and accrescent of all pow-er. It is the heiress of most of the past and the almoner of most of the future. "Come!" You may pro-nounce it so that all the heavens will be heard in its cadences or pronounce it so that all the woes of time and eternity shall reverberate in its one syllable. It is on the lip of saint and profligate. It is the mightiest of all solicitants either for good or bad.

To-day I weigh anchor and haul in the planks and set sail on that great word, although I am sure I will not be able to reach the farther shore. I will let down the fathoming line into this sea and try to measure its depths, and, though I tie together all the cables and cordage I have on board, I will not be able to touch bottom. All the power of the Christian religion is in that word "come." The dictatorial and commendatory in religion are of no avail. The imperative mood is not the appropriate mood when we would have people savingly impressed. They may be coaxed, but they cannot be driven. Our hearts are like our homes-at a friendly knock. the door will be opened, but an atland the assailant in prison. Our theological seminaries, which keep young men three years in their curriculum before launching them into the ministry, will do well if in so short a time they can teach the candidates for the holy office how to say with right emphasis and intonation and power that one word "come" That man who has such efficiency in Christian work and that woman who has such power to per-suade people to quit the wrong and begin the right went through a series of losses, bereavements, persecutions and the trials of twenty thirty years before they could make it a triumph of grace every time they uttered the word "come." You must remember that in many cases our "come" has a mightier "come" to conquer before it has any effect at all. Just give me the accurate census, the statistics of how many are down in fraud, in drunkenness, in gambling, in impurity or in vice of any sort, and I will give you the accurate census or statistics of how many have been slain by the word "come." "Come and "Come and click wineglasses with me at this "Come and see what win at this gambling table." "Come, enter with me this doubtful speculation." "Come with "Come with me and read those infidel tracts on Christianity." "Come with me to a place of bad amusement." "Come with me in a gay bout through the underground life of the city." If in this city there are twenty thousand then twenty thousand fell under the power of the word "come." I was been overthrown by strong drink, diastase and hydrochloric and lactic and she went to the saloon where he was ruined, and she said, "Give me back my husband." And the bar- Squart's Dyspepsia Tablets are so valtender, pointing to a maudlin and battered man drowsing in the corner of a bar-room, said: "There he is. of a bar-room, said: Jim, wake up. Here's your wife these absolutely necessary essentials come for you." And the woman for perfect food. you call that my hus-What have you been doing with him? Is that the manly brow is that the clear eye, is that the noble heart, that I married? What vile drug have you given him that has turned him into a fiend? Take your tiger claws off of him. Uncoil those serpent folds of evil habit that are crushing him. Give me back my husband, the one with whom I stood at the altar ten years ago: Give him back to me." Vic-tim was he, as millions of others been, of the word "come." Now, we want all the world over to harness this word for good as others have harnessed it for evil, and it will draw the five continents and the seas between them - yea, it will draw the whole earth back to the God from whom it has wandered. It is that woolng and persuasive word that will lead men to give up their sins. Was skepticism ever brought fato the love of truth by an ebullition of hot words against infidelity? Was ever the d in his oaths by of blasphemy? Was mimicry of staggering step and hic-cough? No. It was, "Come with me to church to-day and hear our singing;" "Come and let me introduce you to a Christian man whom you will be sure to admire;" "Come with me into associations that are cheerful and good and inspiring: "Come with me into joy such as you never before experienced."

With that word which has done so much for others I approach you today. Are you all right with, God? you say, "I think not. I am alarmed when I think of him. I fear I will not be ready to meet him in the last day. heart is not right with God " then, and have it made right. Through the Christ who died to save you, come! What is the use in waiting? The longer you wait the farther off you are and the deeper you are down. Strike out for heaven! You remember that a few years ago a steamer called the Princess Alice, with a crowd of excursionists on board, sank in the Thames, and there was an awful sacrifice of life. A boatman from the shore put out for the rescue, and he had a big boat, and he got it so full it would not hold another person, and as he laid hold of the oars to pull for the shore, leaving hundreds helpless and drowning, he cried out, "Oh, that I had a big-ger boat!" Thank God I am not thus limited and that I can promise room for all in this gospel boat. Room in the heart of a pardoning

God. Room in heaven.

I also apply the word of my text to those who would like practical comfort. If any ever escape the struggle of life, I have not found them. They are not certainly among the prosperous classes. most cases it was a struggle all the way up till they reached the prosperity, and since they have reached heights there have been perplexities, anxieties and crises which were almost enough to shatter the nerves and turn the brain. It would be hard to tell which have the big-

A SOUR STOMACH

Is Often the Real Cause of a Sour Temper.

That the condition of the digestive organs has a marked effect upon the character or disposition is a truism as old as the hills. Old Ben wisely said, "the pleasure of living depends upon the liver" and it is a fact which none may dispute that a sunny dispo-sition more often results from a sunny disposition more often results than from digestion healthy any other cause.

Acid dyspepsia, commonly called sour stomach or heartburn, is caused by slow digestion of food; instead of being promptly digested and converted are not empty. The supply is not into blood, bone and muscle, it lies in exhausted. There is just as much the stomach for hours, fermenting and mercy and condolence and soothing decaying, creating gases which cause power in God as before mitation. poor nourishment for the body, brain and nerves and the result is shown in of religion have a right to speak irritable tempers. unaccountable headaches and that depressing condition usually called the "blues" but how. was peering through the night, and quickly all these disappear when ap, by the direction of that star they petite and digestion are restored. got home again. Those who follow Laxitive medicines only irritate the the advice of this world in time of already irritated stomach and bowels perplexity are in a fearful round and have no effect upon actual discounters. tion of food.

The sensible course to follow is to make use of simple natural digestives like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after who are down in moral character, meals until the stomach has a chance to recuperate. The natural digestives which every reading of a wife whose husband had shealthy stomach contains are peptones acids and when any of them are lacking, the trouble begins. The reason uable and successful in curing stomach roubles, is because they centain, in a pleasant concentrated tablet form all

> Henry Kirkpatrick, of Lawrence, Mass., says: "Men and women whose occupation precludes an active out door life should make it a daily practice to use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals. I have done so myself and I know positively that I owe my present health and vigor to their daily use.

"From the time I was 22, when I graduated from school with broken health from overwork, until I was 34,

I scarcely knew what it was to be free from stomach weakness. I had no appetite whatever for breakfast and very little for any other meal.

"I had acidity and heartburn nearly every day and sometimes was alarmed by irregularity and palpitation of the heart, but all this gradually disappeared after I began using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I can eat my meals with relish and satisfaction which I had not known since I was a growing boy."

a growing boy."

The success and popularity of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is enormous, but it is deserved, and every druggist in the United States, Canada and Great Britain has a good word for this meritorious preparation.

spicuities or the obscurities. Just as oon as you have enough success to attract the attention of others the envies and jealousies are let loose from their kennel. crime that you can commit in the estimation of others is to get on better than they do. They think your addition is their substration. Five hundred persons start for certain goal of success. One reaches it, and the other four hundred and ninety-nine are mad. It would take volumes to hold the story of the outrages and defamations that have come upon you as a result of your success. The warm sun of prosperity brings into life a swamp full of annoying insects. On the other hand, the unfortunate classes have their struggles for maintenance. To achieve a liveli-hood by one who had nothing to start with and after awhile for a family as well and carry this on until children are reared and educated and fairly started in the world and to do this amid all the rivalries of business and the uncertainty of crops and the fickleness of tariff egislation, with an occasional labor strike and here and there a financial panic thrown in, is a mighty thing down in life or half way between, is the infinite solace of the Christian religion. And so we employ the word "come." It will take all eternity to find out the number of business men who have been strengthened by the promises of God and the people who have been fed by the ravens when other resources gave out and the men and women who, going into this battle armed only with needle or saw or · ax or yardstick or pen or type or shovel or shoe-last. have gained a victory that made the heavens resound. With all the resources God promised for every exigency no one need be left in the lurch. But the word "come" applied to do, and there are hundreds and thousands of such heroes and heroines who live unsung and die un-

those who need solace will amount to nothing unless it be uttered by some one who has experienced that solace. That spreads the responsibility of giving this gospel call among a great Those who have lost property and been consoled by religion in that trial are the ones to invite those who have failed in business Those who have lost their health and been consoled by religion are to ones to invite those who are poor health. Those who have had bereavements and been consoled in those bereavements are the ones sympathize with those who have lost father or mother or companion child or friend. What multitudes of us are alive to-day and in good health and buoyant in this journey of life who would have broken down dead long ago but for the sustaining and cheering help of our holy religion! So we say, "Come!" The well is not dry. The buckets pressure on the tungs and heart short grave was dug, or the first tear breath and general discomfort and ir- started, or the first heart broken, or the first accident happened, or the Such half digested food is indeed first fortune vanished. Those of us who have felt the consolatory power out of our own experiences and say,

> What dismal work of condolence the world makes when it attempts to condole! The plaster they spread does not stick. The broken benes under their bandage do not knit. A farmer was lost in a snowstorm on a prairie of the far west. Night coming on and after he was almost frantic from not knowing which way to go, his sleigh struck the rut of another sleigh, and he said, will follow this rut, and it will take me out to safety." He hastened on until he heard the bells of the preceding horses; but, coming up, found that that man was and, as is the tendency of those who are thus confused in the forest or on the moors, they were both moving in a circle, and the runner of the one lost sleigh was following the runner of the other lost sleigh round and round. At last it occurred to them to look at the north star, which ing another bewildered soul, and only those who have in such time got their eye on the morning star of our Christian faith can find their way out or be strong enough to lead others with an all persuasive invita-

"But," says some one, "you Chrisyet you do not tell us how to That charge shall not true on this occasion. Come believ-ing! Come repenting! Come pray-ing! After all that God has been doing for six thousand years, sometimes through patriarchs and some times through prophets and at last through the culmination of all the tragedies on Golgotha, can any one think that God will not welcome your coming? Will a father at vast outlay construct a mansion for his son and lay out parks white with statues and green with foliage and all a-sparkle with fountains and then not allow his son to live in the house or walk in the parks? Has God built this house of gospel mercy and will he then refuse entrance to his children? Will a government at great expense build life saving sta-tions all along the coast and boats that can hover unhurt like a petrel over the wildest surge and then, when the lifeboat has reached the wreck of a ship in the offing, not althe drowning to seize the life or take the boat for the shore in safety? Shall God provide at the cost of his only Son's assassination escape for a sinking world and ther turn a deaf ear to the cry that comes up from the breakers?

"But," you say, "there are so many things I have to believe and so many things in the shape of a creed that I have to adopt that believe but two things-namely, that Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners and that you are one of them. "Put," you say, "I do believe both of these things." Do you really believe them with all your heart? "Yes." Why, then, you have passed from death into life. Why, then, you are a son or a daughter of the Lord Almighty. Why, then, you are an heir or an heiress of an inheritance that will declare dividends from now until long after the stars are dead. Halleluiah! Prince of God, why do you not come and take your coronet? the Lord Almighty, why do you not mount your throne? Pass up into Your boat is anchored, why do you not go ashore? Just plant your feet hard down, and you will feel under them the Rock Ages. I challenge the universe for one instance in which a man in the right spirit appealed for the salvation of the gospel and did not get it. Man alive, you are going to let all the years of your life go away with you without your having this great reace, this glorious hope, this bright repectancy? Are you going to let flust at your feet because you are too Indolent or too proud to stoop down and pick it up? Will you wear the chain of evil habit when near by you is the hammer that could with one stroke snap the shackle? stay in the prison of sin when here is a gospel key that could unlock your incarceration? No, no! As the one word "come" sometimes brought many souls Christ, I will try the experiment of piling up into a mountain and then send down in an avalanche of power many of these gospel "comes."

"Come thou and all thy house into the ark;" "Come unto me all ye who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest;" "Come for all things are now ready;" "Come with us, and we will do you good;"
"Come and see;" "The Spirit and the bride say 'come," and let him that heareth say 'come," and let him that is athirst come." The stroke of one bell in a tower may be sweet but a score of bells well tuned and rightly lifted and skillfully swung in one great chime fill the heavens with music almost celestial. And no one who has heard the mighty nes in the towers of Amsterdam or Ghent or Copenhagen can forget this Sabbath hour all heaven is chiming, and the voices of departed friends and kindred ring down the sky, saying, "Come!" The angels who never fell, bending from sapphire thrones, are chanting, "Come!" Yea, all the towers of heaven, tower of martyrs, tower of prophets, tower of apostles, tower of evangelists, tower of the temple of the Lord God and the Lamb are chiming . "Come! Come!" Pardon for all, and peace

When Russia was in one of great wars, the suffering of the sol-diers had been long and bitter, and they were waiting for the end of the strife. One day a messenger in great excitement ran among the tents the army shouting, "Peace! Peace!" The sentinel on guard asked, "Who says 'peace?" And the sick soldier turned on his hospital mattress and asked, "Who says 'peace?" And all up and down the encampment of the Russians went the question, "Who says 'peace?' "Then the messenger responded, "The Czar says 'peace." That was enough. That meant going home. That meant the war was over. No more wounds and no more long marches. So to-day, as one of the Lord's messengers, I move through these great encampments of souls and cry: 'Peace between earth and heaven! Peace between God and man! Peace between your repenting soul and a pardoning Lord!" If you ask me, "Who says peace?" I answer, "Christ, our King, declares it:" "My peace I give unto you!" "Peace of God that passeth all understanding!" Everlasting peace!

for all, and heaven for all

Europe has had 321 monarchs since the battle of Hastings.

our Leisure Hours. A boy was employed in a lawyer's office, and he had the daily papers with which to amuse himself. He began to study French, and became a fluent reader and writer of the language. He accomplished this by laying aside the newspaper and taking up something not so amusing, but far more profitable.

A coachman was often obliged to wait long hours while his mistress made calls. He determined to im-prove the time. He found a small volume containing the writings Virgil, but could not read it; so he purchased a Latin grammar. Day after day he studied this, and finally mastered its intricacies. His mis tress came up behind him one day as he stood by the horses waiting for her, and asked him what he was so intently reading 'Only a bit of Virgil, ma'am.

"What! do you read Latin?" asked in surprise. She mentioned this to her husband who insisted that David should have a teacher to instruct him. short time David became a learned man, and was for many years a use ful and beloved minister in Scotland A boy was told to open and shut the gates to let teams out of an iron mine. Sometimes an hour would pass before the teams came, and this he used so well that there was scarcely any fact in history that escaped his attention. He began with a little book on English history and, having learned that thoroughly, he borrowed of a minister Gold-smith's "History of Greece." This good man became greatly interested in him and lent him books, and was often seen sitting beside him on the log conversing with him about the people of ancient times. Boys, it will they you to use you

If Christ be a constant guest in a home his presence will reveal itself; the fact need not be proclaimed by the members of the home. Religion which is always apparent. And is it any wonder that the "Souvenir" (with its Aerated Oven) should be made the standard for quality and excellence from whatever point one may choose to view it? Merit will get to the top-> and "Souvenir" popularity proves it. The best by test and comparison; most economical - most durable - best appointed -most perfect cooker and baker-handsomely fitted -for general good service without a fault. Sold everywhere—the one will last a lifetime.

"Souvenir" Superiority

Geo Stephens, Quinn & Douglas AGENTS, CHATHAM.

Made by THE GURNEY-TILDEN CO., Limited, Hamilton, Canada STOVE, RANGE AND RADIATOR MANUFACTURERS

Furniture and Carpets

Parlor Suites

Made of Silk Tapestry, with buttoned backs, $18.00, $20.00, $25.00 and $30.00. Three Piece Suites, with Mahogany finished frames, $15.00, $18.00, $20.00, $25.00. Rug Suites of good and serviceable rugs, $32.00, $38.00, $45.00, worth $40.00, $50.00 and $60.00.

Bedroom Suites

A Special Line from $10, $12. Do not fail to see these Suites. Polished Oak Suits, with british bevel mirrors, $25 00, $65.00. We are offering a special line of CARPETS at 50c per yard, worth 60c and 65c per yard. Made and laid free of charge.

Hugh McDonald

Opposite Garner House

SPINNEY

THE OLD RELIABLE SPECIALIST

Oldest in experience—Richest in medical knowledge and skill—crowned with 36 years of unparalleled success—the sufferer friend—the people's specialist. He has cured thousands and CAN CURE YOU. All Chronic, Nervous, Blood, Skin and private diseases of Men oud Women, no matter how long lingering, dangerous or severe. Lost Vitality restored, Stricture, Varicoccic, Kidney and Bladder Trouble, Rupture, Riles, Fistula and Knotted (enlarged) Veins in the leg cured, and ne knife used, no Suspensory to wear, no Trust to get out of order knife used, no Suspensory to wear, no Truss to get out of order and you can work all the time.

BLOOD POISON AND SKIN DISEASES

The scourge of the human roce can surely be cured and all traces of the disease driven out of the body and the system left in a pure and heathy state. Delays here are dangerous. Like father, like son. A stitch in time may save you.

HOURS—9.00 a. m. to 8.00 p. m. Sundays—9.00 a. m; to 12 a. m. Consultation free. Seperate parlors for ladies.

DR. SPINNEY & CO

290 and 292 WCODWARD AVE. DE Private Entrance 12 M Elizabeth DETROIT, MICH.

True economy lies also in wise buying as you will find if you purchase Blue

Makes a specialty of examination of the eye and the accurate fitting of

To measure our success I need only refer, reader of "The Planet," to the vast number of people in every section of city and vicinity who will testify to the benefit they have received as a result of our services. I make no charge for examination. I sell none but the best goods. If you have no use for good sight or good glasses at a reasonable price, you

A. A. JORDAN At the Sign of The Big Olook I ***************************

Subscribe Now