

SELECTION OF CASSELL'S RELIGIOUS WORKS

THE HIGH ROAD TO CHRIST

By the Rev. Richard Roberts.

IN this "Popular Essay in Re-Statement" Mr. Roberts gives "the broad essential outlines of the faith of the Gospel as I hold it to-day," and "the main reasons why I hold it in the way I do."

Cloth gilt, 75c. net. *

AMONG THE HERETICS IN EUROPE

By J. A. Packer.

With an Introduction by the Rev. JOHN CLIFFORD, D.D.

THIS is the unconventional record of a journalist's tour through Russia and other parts of Europe, more particularly among the "heretics" from the Greek and Roman Churches.

With 8 Half-tone Plates from Photographs.
Cloth gilt, 75 cents.

THE CHILD'S BIBLE

Popular Edition.

THIS is an attempt to reproduce succinctly, and in the beautiful English of the Authorised Version, all that portion of the Bible which may be expected to interest children. Such a book, as fathers and mothers know, has long been needed, and the present volume, with its bold and readable type and its reproductions of works of celebrated Artists, should meet with a lively demand. With 4 Colour Plates. Extra crown 8vo. 256 pages. Cloth, 35c. net.

EVANGELICALISM: HAS IT A FUTURE?

REV. R. C. GILLIE

(Author of "The Story of Stories,"
"God's Lantern Bearers," etc.)

MR. GILLIE traces the uprise of the Evangelical Movement, deals with "The Secret of its Failures" and "The Secret of its Power."

In a couple of chapters he gives an eloquent "Vindication of Evangelicalism in Life and Literature," but he goes on to demonstrate that Evangelicalism is at the cross-roads, and shows how its future life and progress depend on its attitude to two or three great problems of the present time.

The book pleads for the warmth of the old Evangelicalism together with a wider intellectual outlook.

Foolscap 8vo, 132 pages. Cloth gilt, 45c.

THE RENASCENCE OF FAITH

By the Rev. Richard Roberts.

IN this important volume the future of traditional Christianity is ably dealt with.

Cloth gilt, $1.75.

LIFE'S TANGLED THREAD

RT. REV. W. BOYD-CARPENTER, D.D.
(Canon of Westminster and late Bishop of Ripon).

THIS little volume is written particularly for those who are perplexed by the inscrutable mysteries of life—suffering, calamity, the presence of sin in God's domain, &c. Advancing the axiom that life is a gift to us, the author discusses the great problem in four illuminating sections dealing with "Life's Problem," "The Tangles of Men's Making," "What does Life Mean?" and "The Silver Thread of Faith." The Bishop's thoughtful and sympathetic exposition of the subject will be helpful to thousands.

With Rembrandt Photogravure Frontispiece. Super royal 16mo. 35c. net.

LIFE'S UNEXPECTED ISSUES

And other Papers on Character and Conduct

By the Rev W. L. Watkinson, D.D., LL.D.

DR. WATKINSON is one of the foremost preachers of the day. He is never dull, gets quickly to the heart of his subject, and has an incisive, refreshing style. Portrait Frontispiece, cloth gilt, $1.00.
