

Systematic Birthday Recognition

Is of vital importance to every Sunday School. A Birthday remembrance that has no particular significance as a Bible School message fails to secure the valuable results that are possible.

Form 1063. First Year Primary superintendent they become very live, direct messages that will leave an impress on the life of the child as well as exert an influence in the home. Experience has proven that a personal Birthday letter or message has frequently been the means of bringing an entire family into the school or church.

No effort or expense has been spared to make these cards appropriate and beautiful.

They are printed by the particular process that reproduces the soft, delicate tints of the original paintings and also their unusual expressiveness and charm in the most faithful manner.

Our artists have expressed the thought of each card most admirably. You need only to see them to be convinced.

These cards are equal to the most expensive on the market, but in order that all schools may be able to use them, we have placed the price very low.

The following, along with those illustrated, are the grades which we have in stock :
